

County Spelling Champ

Rogers Girl, 13, Wins Bee

ON TO CANTON! Cecelia Wolford of Rogers, 1969 Columbiana County spelling champ, leads a parade of county rural school system girls headed for the regional bee at Canton April 25. They include, left to right, Carol Booth of Lisbon RD 3, Darla McCreary of New Waterford, Sarah Coppock of Winona and Ellen Mountz of Honover RD.

A 13-year-old Beaver Local seventh grader from Rogers will lead four other girls from the Columbiana County rural school system to the regional spelling bee at Canton April 25. Cecelia Wolford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wolford of Rogers, topped Carol Booth, also a Beaver Local seventh grader, to win the county spelling-down Friday night at Lisbon. Carol, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Booth of Lisbon RD 3 and Cecelia struggled with difficult multisyllable words for ten minutes before the new champion was chosen. Others who made the final showdown and will present the county at Canton are Darla McCreary, 14, of New Waterford, Sarah Coppock of Winona and Ellen Mountz of near Hanover. Darla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCreary, an eighth grader at Fairfield School. Sarah, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coppock of Winona, is in eighth grade at United. Ellen, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Mountz of Hanover RD 1, is also a United eighth grader. It marked the first time in the history of the county spelling bee that the five qualifiers for the regional finals came from a single school system.

The five girls won out over 27 other spelling representatives from Salem, Columbiana, Leetonia, Lisbon, East Liverpool, Wellsville and the county parochial schools as they struggled through one of the toughest word lists in memory of observers. Cecelia and Carol, classmates, staged an "Alphonse and Gaston" act as neither could apply the clincher although both had several opportunities after the field was narrowed to two. Cecelia finally spelled "balustrade" after Carol had missed it and then handled "hieroglyphics" correctly. (Turn to BEE, Page 2)

Arab, Israeli Forces Duel In Latest Mideast Flareup

By The Associated Press Arab and Israeli forces clashed on the Jordanian front today as Egypt denied there was anything new in King Hussein's six-point Middle East peace plan. An Israeli army spokesman said Israeli troops clashed with Jordanian regulars south of the Sea of Galilee after an Arab guerrilla attack on an Israeli patrol. He said the guerrillas opened fire on the patrol with bazookas at 6:30 a.m., and the Jordanian regulars joined in with a mortar barrage lasting 2 1/2 hours.

The spokesman said the Israeli forces returned the fire without suffering any casualties. A Jordanian spokesman said the Israelis began shelling South Menchia village at 5:45 a.m., stopped briefly and then resumed again at 6:45 a.m. He said the Jordanians suffered no losses, but claimed five Israeli soldiers were hit by Jordanian gunners.

Today's clash followed artillery duels Friday across the Jordan River and the Suez Canal.

A communique from Cairo said the Israelis started firing across the Suez Canal in the fourth battle there in eight days, and a Jordanian communique said the Israelis shelled Jordanian troops from positions on the occupied West Bank.

Both communiqes said the Arabs suffered no casualties. There was no immediate word on the two battles from Israeli headquarters in Tel Aviv.

The semi-official Egyptian newspaper Al Ahran, which usually reflects the thinking of President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said today the peace plan outlined Thursday by King Hussein of Jordan did not represent a shift from the previous Arab position on terms for a settlement.

Washington had viewed as a new development Hussein's statement Thursday that one point in his peace plan would give Israel full navigation rights in the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. The Jordanian monarch had said he was speaking for President Gamal Abdel Nasser as well as himself. Al Ahran said any settlement with Israel according to the provisions of the U.N. Security Council resolution of November 1967 must be divided into two parts. "Firstly liquidation of the consequences of the June 1967 battles through withdrawal and implementation of the first part. 5 Areas Hard Hit

Flood Damage In Millions; More States Await Blows

By The Associated Press Flooding caused mounting damage—over $3 million in one area—and extreme hardship today for persons in five states.

Meanwhile, communities along the Mississippi River braced for the larger water runoff expected from tributaries currently swamping her hinterlands and forcing over 3,000 persons from their homes.

The U.S. Geological Survey said some rivers are carrying 2 1/2 times more water than during the worst floods ever recorded in the Midwest.

States hit hardest by the heavy snow melt near the Canadian border are Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and, to a lesser degree, Wisconsin.

Rampaging waters from the Souris River in north-central North Dakota crashed through earthen dikes at Minot and sent 2,000 persons fleeing from their homes. County officials estimated damage for the town of 33,000 at $3.25 million.

The Red River, swirling down from Canada on the North Dakota and Minnesota border, forced evacuation of 25 families at Enderlin, N. D. At Wahpeton, N.D., the river was six feet above flood stage with a crest expected later today one foot high set in 1897.

At Fargo, N.D., the Red River was 11 feet above flood stage and at Jamestown, N.D., the rising James River pushed through a dike and forced the evacuation of 75 persons from a housing development for elderly persons.

The Big Sioux River crested and began receding Friday at Sioux Falls, S.D., Sioux City, (Turn to FLOODS, Page 2)

WASHINGTON — President Nixon has proclaimed Monday as Pan American Day, commemorating the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Inter-American System.

Cong Gunners Blast Allied Bases, Towns

Casualties In Attacks Seen Light

Rubble Searched For Bodies After Heavy Shellings

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong gunners shelled 30 allied bases and towns in a second night of intensified rocket and mortar attacks, military spokesmen reported today. Casualties and damage were termed light. Vinh Long City, a provincial capital in the Mekong Delta 65 miles southwest of Saigon, was shelled a second time in 17 hours. Spokesmen said 34 mortar shells exploded near the city police station, killing three civilians and wounding three others. More than 100 mortar rounds fell on the city early Friday, killing 17 persons and wounding 105.

Tay Ninh City, another provincial capital hard hit in Friday's attacks, was untouched, but enemy gunners shelled an American base camp three miles west of the city. Spokesmen said one American soldier was killed and six were wounded.

In Tay Ninh, workers probed through rubble searching for bodies. Eighty persons were missing by official count, but unofficial estimates ranged as high as 150. Some reports said 35 bodies had been recovered. "We don't know how many are buried in there," said one American officer.

Twelve persons were known dead, and 100 were wounded when enemy rockets slammed into two ammunition dumps, blowing up more than 200 tons of artillery and small arms ammunition. The explosions destroyed about 100 buildings.

Associated Press Correspondent George McArthur reported from Tay Ninh that occasional rounds were still going off as workers began their search through the ruins.

An American adviser said the list of missing persons may be reduced when new counts are taken of survivors in the area. Early counts, he said, were (Turn to VIET, Page 2)

Fever Brings Concern For Paul McCraw

Nine-year-old Paul McCraw, given the kidney of a girl in a transplant operation April 3 at Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh, is reported with a high fever today, apparently as a result of blood infection. Son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCraw of Mulberry St., Paul's fever possibly results from the many drugs he has been given to keep his body from rejecting the new kidney. His mother said the child is suffering quite a bit of pain, but (Turn to PAUL, Page 2)

Oh! Oh!

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — It was just a beatup looking 1957 Plymouth, and police suspected it was sporting stolen tires — but what it really had was: Rocket launchers, a mechanism to squirt enough oil out the back end to cover a four-lane highway for 50 feet, another gadget to set up a smokescreen, a doo-dad to put on a psychedelic light show and a secret compartment in the steering wheel hub.

The owner, Ronald L. Crona, was charged with larceny in connection with what police said were stolen tires. Crona explained he had planned on making a "007"-type movie. (Turn to 007, Page 2)

Man Hospitalized

House Struck As Cars Hit

SPLINTER SCENE. The wrecked porch of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaw of Lisbon St., hit by an auto Friday night, is viewed, left to right, by their daughter, Kelly Shaw and Lane Sue Knight and Theresa Griffin, neighbors, and Janet Griffin of Lisbon St. who was baby-sitting for the family.

An East Liverpool man was hospitalized and another was treated and released following an accident involving three cars — one parked — which also resulted in damage to a house at 862 Lisbon St. Friday night. Robert William Montgomery, 18, of 226 Haywood St. suffered a possible back injury and was listed as "fair" this morning at City Hospital. Charles Papendry, 63, of 1058

Pennsylvania Ave. was treated for muscle strain and injuries of the chest and leg and released.

Police said Papendry was traveling south on Lisbon St. when he attempted to turn left onto W. 9th St. and collided with the car operated by Montgomery.

Montgomery's vehicle then traveled across the roadway, striking the home occupied by Fred A. Shaw and a parked auto belonging to Joseph J. Clanni of 742 Lincoln Ave.

The house is owned by Kenneth Browning of 1281 Dodge St.

Papendry was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way. The right side of his 1966 sedan and both sides and the front of Montgomery's 1955 auto were damaged.

The accident occurred at 10:42 p.m.

59 Centers To Be Closed

Supporters Of Job Corps Set Drive Against Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — House backers of the Job Corps hope to force a vote by the end of May on President Nixon's plan to cutback the key poverty program.

Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz made official Friday what had been widely reported for several days: 59 of the 113 centers will be closed by July 1. Plans to open 30 new daytime only training centers in and near central city areas didn't pacify ardent Job Corps supporters.

Rep. Carl D. Perkins, chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, said the administration plan "will deny hope and opportunity to thousands of underprivileged boys and girls."

"I hope the Congress will not be a party to it," the Kentucky Democrat added.

The House Education and Labor Committee plans to resume hearings on the whole poverty program April 21 and similar hearings are planned in the September.

Perkins said his committee will give the House a chance to vote on the issue soon, perhaps before the end of May. President Nixon has transferred the Job Corps to the Labor Department from the Office of Economic Opportunity effective July 1. Perkins also hopes to stop the transfer.

In the midst of the blossoming congressional furor over the cuts, there was a report that President Nixon had tapped a popular young Republican congressman from Illinois, Donald Rumsfeld, to head OEO.

The Washington Post said intensive efforts were being made to get the 36-year-old former Navy pilot to take the post so the administration will have a (Turn to CUTBACKS, Page 2)

Weekend's Weather Due To Be Pleasant

A pleasant weekend is in prospect for residents of the tri-state area.

Sunday is to be fair with seasonable temperature. The high will be around 60.

Some rain may fall Monday, the weatherman says.

NATO Aides Bypass Reds' Parley Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Atlantic Treaty Organization, set up two decades ago as a bulwark against European Communist advances, cautiously embarked today on a path that could make it an instrument of lasting peace.

The NATO foreign ministers wound up a two-day anniversary conference Friday proposing to explore with the Soviets and their allies the possibilities for settling specific differences.

But they suggested a cautious, step-by-step approach and shunned a Communist plan for a general conference on European security.

The 15 NATO ministers had spent considerable time discussing an invitation issued by the Warsaw pact nations March 17 to a joint European security conference.

Their final communique replied indirectly, by bypassing it. "The allies propose, while remaining in close consultation, to explore with the Soviet Union and the other countries of Eastern Europe which concrete issues best lend themselves to fruitful negotiation and an early resolution."

The NATO ministers instructed their ambassadors at NATO's Brussels headquarters to draw up a list that might be negotiated with the Reds.

In Sit-In Case

Harvard Faculty Drops Charges

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — By an almost unanimous faculty vote, Harvard has decided to drop criminal trespass charges against nearly 200 students ejected from an administration building sit-in by club-swinging police at dawn Thursday.

"We deplore the forcible occupation of University Hall" by the students and "we deplore the entry of police into any university," the faculty said in a resolution adopted by vote of 396 to 13.

The faculty acted as thousands of students boycotted classes to protest the summoning of police. Moderate groups as well as those led by students for a Democratic Society, which had led the sit-in Wednesday, took part in the planned three-day strike.

Estimates of the number of boycotting students varied from 3,000 to 8,000 out of a student body of 15,000. There were no official figures.

President Nathan M. Pusey, head of Harvard for the last 16 years, issued a statement in which he said the decision to call in the police was reached after it was learned the invaders had broken down the door of a confidential records room, and "had begun to rifle and duplicate the faculty personnel files and financial records."

Since the faculty is the ultimate authority at Harvard in matters of discipline, Franklin L. Ford, dean of faculty, said university charges against the students would be dropped.

He added that about a half-dozen demonstrators were charged by police with assault and disturbing the peace, and the faculty vote has no bearing on these charges.

In the melee Thursday which followed the deployment of 400 police to clear University Hall, 39 students suffered minor injuries and nearly 200 were hauled away under arrest.

The faculty resolution said primary blame for the episode must rest with those who illegally took possession of the administration building.

Dean Ford said that some of the stolen files were duplicated in an issue of "Old Mo" a self-styled "radical bi-weekly."

Two Ohio Centers To Be Hit By Closings

By The Associated Press

Two Ohio Job Corps centers are among 59 around the country which will be closed by the Nixon administration.

The centers, both designated conservation camps, are at Camp Perry near Port Clinton in Ottawa County and at Vesuvius near Ironton in Lawrence County.

While announcing plans to close down the centers, the administration said it also is considering the establishment of new urban residential manpower centers in 28 cities, including Cleveland and Cincinnati.

Italy Swept By New Riots

ROME (AP) — Italy's Communist party today called for disarmament of Italian police to prevent deaths during riots as the nation reeled from a new wave of unrest.

"Italy says 'Enough'" headlined the Communist party organ L'Unita. It blamed the government for the nationwide strikes and demonstrations that erupted after two persons were killed and hundreds were injured in a riot Wednesday at Battipaglia.

L'Unita termed subsequent clashes between demonstrators and police "grave new police provocations." It said the disorders and protests in Rome, Milan, Florence and other cities were "a proper reply to the massacre of Battipaglia and to the political failures of the center-left" coalition government.

The government made no reply to the opposition charges, but the pro-government newspaper Giornale D'Italia blamed Communist organizers for starting the Battipaglia rioting, that put thousands of citizens against 2,000 police. The demonstrators were protesting what they called "economic stagnation" in their region.

The worst violence Friday night erupted in Milan, where hundreds of students pitched bottles, bricks and Molotov cocktails at police, who retaliated with clubs, water hoses and teargas. Several policemen were injured and four students were hospitalized.

Workers across Italy struck for three hours Friday afternoon in a show of sympathy for workers and students of Battipaglia. In Salerno province, a strike tied up public transportation, city services, and factories for 24 hours.

40 Arrested Pickets To File For Damages
CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—Some 40 workers have been arrested and charged with illegal picketing in their strike against two hospitals, and the workers say they'll sue the state for allegedly violating civil rights laws.

Attorney F. Henderson Moore, representing the strikers, said Friday he will file a $10 million damage suit in U.S. District Court, Charleston, next week against Gov. Robert E. McNair and officials of the two hospitals.

The complaint will also charge the officials with "acting in concert" to deprive strikers "of their right to self organization, petition for redress of grievances and the freedoms of speech and assembly," Moore said.

Southwest Hit By Rain, Hail

By The Associated Press
Thunderstorms cracked over the Southwest today and triggered scattered outbreaks of wind, heavy rain and hail northward into the Central Rockies.

A flash flood advisory was in effect for late Friday for Austin, Tex., and the nearby hill country after heavy downpours west of the city.

Nearly 1 1/2 inches of rain soaked Laredo and San Angelo, Tex., during the night.

Hailstones the size of baseballs rattled the Pecos area of West Texas. Reports of hail were numerous elsewhere over the storm belt.

The storm activity ranged eastward to Louisiana and north through Colorado before dawn. Clear skies were widespread outside the storm region, although cloudiness was quite general along the Pacific Coast. Temperatures slid into the 20s from the Great Lakes region to interior New England. Houlton, Maine, registered 24 before daybreak.

Killed In Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Pfc. Raymond A. Gray of Cleveland and Marine Pfc. Richard L. Porter of Stow, Ohio, have been killed in action in Vietnam, the Defense Department said Friday.

The U.S. Cavalry was abolished as an arm of the military service in 1946, the remaining units being absorbed by the armored forces.

'Responsibility' Stressed As Key Part Of Freedom

"A good Lion serves God, his country and his fellow man," Ernest Williams of Alliance, district governor of Lions International, told the East Liverpool club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Williams referred to the Constitution of the United States as a paper which influenced more people than any other. He said "after those great men wrote this paper, they read it, then added the Bill of Rights—the words which give us our freedoms."

He told the members to read between the lines. "The right to vote is ours, but this also gives us the responsibility to vote," he said.

"The right to freedom of speech is ours," he exclaimed, but this also carries with it a responsibility.

"Governments fail because people have failed to live up to their responsibilities."

He asked each member to examine himself and ask: "Am I a dynamic person in the service of others?"

Richard Walker was program chairman.

Oberlin College Officials Bow To Some Demands

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Oberlin College officials agreed to some demands of protesting students early today in a marathon bargaining session that began Friday afternoon.

But officials, faculty members and student leaders remained in the school's administration building after the concessions were announced about 2 a. m. as did some 200 students threatening to take over the building if their demands were not met.

President Robert K. Carr, a participant in the session which started about 5 p. m. Friday, agreed not to use his power to exercise the final word in camp disciplinary matters.

It was agreed that such matters would be handled at least temporarily by a student-faculty board already in existence, but that the case of a suspended student protest group leader would be submitted to a general faculty meeting.

Students, who Friday called for a two-day strike next week in their dispute over the workings of Oberlin's judicial setup, said they wanted:

—Carr's resignation or removal.

—Suspension of a bylaw giving Carr final word in campus disciplinary matters.

—Assurance that a student-faculty board would be given sole jurisdiction over discipline cases until a new campus judicial code was approved.

—Reinstatement of Jeremy Pikser, a leader of Oberlin's Students for a Democratic Society chapter, who was suspended after demonstrating March 28 against Peace Corps recruiters on campus.

Pikser was one of three students suspended in the same demonstration. He was the only one who refused to agree to cause no further disruptions on campus. The other two were reinstated.

Some 25 to 50 students had occupied Oberlin's administration building overnight Wednesday, demanding Pikser's reinstatement and charging that he was denied "due process" by school officials.

Carr and a faculty council rejected the demands.

Oberlin's student senate then voted Thursday to call for Carr's resignation, suspend all campus social rules and end their working relationship with faculty members.

Other students moved into Oberlin's student union, saying they planned to convert it into a communal living center. Their project continued through Friday without a public challenge by school officials, who said services in the union were not being disrupted.

Friday, after Oberlin officials failed to give in to student demands, the student senate called for a student-faculty boycott to start Monday and continue through Tuesday.

Ohio State Picks Local Senior As 'Honor Scholar'

Miss Cindy Raye Wagoner, daughter of Mrs. Sara Wagoner and a senior at East Liverpool High School, has been chosen as a freshman honor scholar at Ohio State University.

She will receive special housing, curriculum, financial and library privileges.

Cindy is a member of the National Honor Society, Hi-Tri and Latin Club, as well as being a homeroom officer.

She has been named a commended honor student in the National Merit Scholarship Test and will be in "Who's Who of graduating seniors."

Cindy plans to enter the College of Engineering at Ohio State University next fall.

An Appropriate Action

Kent State University's response to a new campus outburst by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was both swift and firm.

Officials have suspended seven students and the charter of the Kent SDS chapter. Warrants have been issued for five students charged with assault and battery in the aftermath of Tuesday's clash with campus police during a SDS protest demonstration.

THE CRACKDOWN on SDS had to come. Chapter members have gone far beyond the limits of legitimate dissent and have repeatedly infringed upon the rights of others with their disruptive tactics in behalf of dictatorial demands.

Kent officials have been more than lenient in dealing with protesting students. Protestors have been given ample opportunity to voice their dissent loud and clear without interrupting the educational process at the university.

A Kent vice president offered to meet with two or three of the protestors to hear their complaints but the students refused the invitation.

The university administration naturally is sensitive to student feelings and protective of the right of dissent but the line has to be drawn when students blatantly disregard the rights of everyone else.

Kent's action is positive in that it makes clear that the institution supports definite standards while remaining open minded about student concerns.

University action was directed at a single organization that had clearly stepped out of bounds with its protest.

THE RIGHT to disagree is guaranteed by the Constitution as it should be. Charges of repression against Kent by SDS supporters are ill-founded. An institution of higher learning has the right and the responsibility to maintain order on campus and keep the education process operating.

Any institution — or nation for that matter — that functions at the level of its lowest common denominator is in dire trouble.

Kent took appropriate action that leaves little room for criticism.

Cemetery Sneaks

It is reassuring to learn not all the ancient arts are succumbing to the passage of time or being replaced by newer enchantments.

The Review has not had a local story about thefts from a poor box in a church for some years. But of course, churches and their ministers are still being victimized by occasional burglars, bandits and vandals.

Grave robbing continues, however. Not the old Egyptian "dig up and dismantle" approach, just the casual "We need more lilies, George."

Riverview Cemetery officials reported potted plants were taken from graves over the Easter period, a not uncommon occurrence at cemeteries in the area on Memorial Day and Easter holidays. It requires a special callousness to be able to convert flowers from intended use of honoring the memory of a loved one to brightening a front window or the corner of a back yard.

Stolen blooms rarely wilt, but they must some day bring a sense of shame — suitably, perhaps, when the next generation of cemetery sneak thieves steals from the graves of this generation.

Letters To The Editor

Last year as a junior at East Liverpool High School I was proud of the fact that next year I would be a member of the new high school. It wasn't very far into September 1969 that my opinion changed.

Why? I cannot answer that question completely, but I would like to try. It seems as long as I can remember there have been troubles in our school system. Everything came to a head this year. It was unfortunate it happened in the way it did, but pressure can build only so long.

Who really suffers for this? Not Mr. McNea or Mr. McConnell. Yes, they were subject to unjust public ridicule. Neither the people nor I still really know what happened. Yes, they were both wrong to some extent, but this is due to our permissive administration. This could have been stopped a long time ago, but it was allowed to grow out of hand.

This same problem of permissiveness has found its way into the student body. The respect which was once there for the principal is not there. Why? Because he means nothing to the students. This cannot be fully blamed upon him. With the new school, he has had a lot to deal with.

I think we would be better off if the iron hand were made known to the students of E.L.H.S. again. The rules and regulations are there, but they need to be enforced to do any good.

I don't want the people to get the wrong idea. There are major problems in our system, but this is no reason not to back the two levy renewals May 6. Again, the only people who will be hurt will be the students. Not supporting the levy will only make things worse.

I love our high school. We have the best teachers and beautiful buildings. The problem left is a moral one. If the town gets behind our schools and students, nothing will stop us.

Did you ever consider that all the problems are not up on the hill, but maybe some of them are down in the valley with you? Let's bring back the "Age of Reason" in East Liverpool. Good luck, underclassmen!

Senior,

Reaction Rapped

Cancellation of the Smothers Brothers TV show is a prime example of our society's methods in dealing with situations it doesn't understand. Please note that I didn't say dislike, but said doesn't understand. Any thing that society doesn't understand brings into the following procedures:

First there is the Big Brother act. "Now, now, its not all that bad, it could be worse so, just don't rock the boat. It will change for the better, just wait and see.

Second act is the Bribe. You are showered with praise and attention, offered gifts, patted on the back, told how great life is, and asked to quit rocking the boat. But when the first two procedures fail, the next is panic. Society hit the Smothers brothers with the panic button. It's the same button that has been pushed on the black man, on students, on union organizers. It's the same button which keeps us at war with our neighbors.

Is faith in our religion so weak that we must censor religious jokes to keep religion from falling apart? Is belief in our government so little that we are afraid a joke will topple it? Is trust in our fellow man so nil, that we are afraid jokes about each other will destroy us? If this be so, may God have mercy on us.

Action Urged

Surely the controversy involving our school system is the present major problem facing the school board and administration and due most serious and early consideration. In the May primary, East Liverpool will again vote for or against the school levies; school itself will end a few weeks later. Considering the short

VICTOR RIESEL

Red Aid For Black Rebels

WASHINGTON — June days are warm in Tanzania's grim little waterfront city of Dar es Salaam. But you can drive away from the piratical scow captains, up along Roosevelt Road, and in Oyster Bay swim in the Indian Ocean.

However, one day last mid-June, four visitors to "Dar" and Zanzibar across the channel had no time for play. They were — and are — American revolutionists whose leaders, in the presence of Mao Tse-tung, took the podium at a Peking rally and pledged that he would escalate the slogan, "Burn, Baby, Burn." To "Kill, Baby, Kill." Violence, he shouted, is the only way of communication.

Those words were trumpeted by Robert Williams, president of the Republic of New Africa, which flashed into the news two weeks ago when its national conference of 300 "citizens" in Detroit wound up in a shoot-out during which a 22-year-old policeman was killed.

One of the four avowed revolutionists in "Dar" last June was Robert Williams. He was on a mission for the "American desk" in Peking. His assignment was to meet with the Republic of New Africa's active home-front leaders: chief Vice President Milton Henry, Minister of Information Richard Henry, and Williams' former associate in Monroe, N.C., May Mallory. Bob Williams is a fugitive from America, running from a kidnapping charge.

HE FLEW IN from Peking with promises and money. They met in "Dar" because the government is heavily influenced by a Maoist power bloc operating out of spicy Zanzibar.

Williams told his allies, who had spent considerable money flying from Detroit and New York, that he could promise them considerable industrial equipment. Chairman Mao himself had pledged this. Furthermore, he could promise military advisers to help train the Republic of New Africa's own force, the Black Legion, which wears green military uniforms, leopard-head shoulder decorations, black berets and black boots.

It would, of course, be difficult to use this equipment — machinery, tools, farm implements and Chinese military officers in the U.S. — until the Republic of New Africa actually holds political power in five Southern states. But the friendly Tanzanian government was ready to grant the RNA sufficient land on which to build a commune until the new government could shift operations to America.

This was the message the Henrys and Mae Mallory brought back with them to the RNA's home city, Detroit.

This was no musical comedy script. Nor a new Broadway production on the new aspirations. The four revolutionists are quite serious, quite experienced and quite intelligent. The RNA's acting president, Milton Henry, is a Yale

Law School honors graduate, an author and a former member of the Detroit City Council.

HIS ORGANIZATION is interlocked with leaders of the Revolutionary Action Movement, two of whom were convicted of conspiracy to murder Urban League President Whitney Young Jr. and NAACP President Roy Wilkins. One of the convicted conspirators, Herman Ferguson, is RNA's Director of Education. "The Republic" also is linked with firebrands of the Progressive Labor Party. There are ties with veteran Communist organizers and other revolutionary "workers" parties.

One of these links is Queen Mother (Audley) Moore, who operates a New York camp called Mount Addis Ababa, just the thing for guerilla training. Mother Moore, who with Herman Ferguson (a participant in the Detroit conference) has been trying to smash the huge New York United Federation of Teachers, is the RNA's Minister of Health and Welfare.

Mr. Henry has a full, rather bizarre cabinet, which includes H. Rap Brown as Minister of Defense. His brother, Richard Henry, is Minister of Information.

THE FOUR REVOLUTIONISTS were dispatched to Dar es Salaam by an RNA legislative assembly held in Chicago last May 30 and June 1. At that conference, 150 "citizens" talked of buying land in Mississippi for an airstrip. They discussed plans to open consulates in America's big cities; seeking diplomatic ties with "friendly" nations; seek United Nations recognition; start their own "government printing office"; impose a three per cent personal income tax on each "citizen" to purchase land in the South; set up black unions to compete with the traditional labor movement and attempt to take over burgeoning black unions in Chicago and Detroit; and launch the Black Legion as its standing army.

Also, under strict security, the gathering was handed a special document on improvising explosives — the making of napalm, thermite incendiaries, Molotov cocktails and other homemade grenades. The document suggested targets — banks, police stations, courthouses, post offices, and communication systems.

The Henry brothers are never ones to smother any angle. They had a "peaceful" approach too. Their strategy also calls for shipping a million black people into Mississippi. Then to work through the ballot box to take over all sheriff posts. Then to seize the government. Then to move over to Alabama. As a starter, they announced they had purchased 100 acres in Mississippi to run as a collective farm.

Judging from the Detroit shoot-out, they were serious about the arms, the standing army and their new nation. Apparently Cuba, Tanzania and Communist China are ready to recognize it.

The first diplomatic contact was made that hot day in "Dar" last June.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Bad Economic Understanding

WASHINGTON — Maybe something constructive will result from the unprecedented conference at White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., on April 14, which has been called by the AFL-CIO. Invitations to participate were accepted by the secretary of treasury, the secretary of labor, the director of the budget, the chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and the white house counselor on economic projects.

For more than 20 years, businessmen have met semiannually at Hot Springs, Va., with cabinet members, and the group was originally known as the Business Advisory Council. But in 1961 a difference of opinion arose as to whether the meeting was being called by the department of Commerce or by the businessmen.

THE WORD "ADVISORY" in the title was dropped, and the whole nature of the conference was changed so it would thereafter be a voluntary affair conducted by businessmen, with government officials as invited guests. This is exactly the parallel arrangement now adopted by the AFL-CIO.

Frank interchanges are possible because these meetings are not open to the press. Afterwards, excerpts or briefings are furnished to the newsmen by the participants at will.

What is the underlying purpose of the new meeting so far as labor is concerned? One labor leader says they hope to persuade the administration not to use "unemployment as a weapon against inflation." There are many economic issues at stake. Will the government, by its high-interest policy or its tax policies, discourage business expansion? Labor is deeply concerned over what the trend of administration policies on economic matters will be.

There is an even greater significance to the conference than merely to get an explanation of governmental attitudes or future recommendations. Labor hopes to present its viewpoint, just as business does at similar meetings.

The AFL-CIO, the parent labor organization, has practically no authority over the operations of its components — the big national or international unions which negotiate their own contracts and do so in many cases on virtually an industrywide basis. Again and again, a president or his secretary of labor has endeavored to persuade labor to exercise self-restraint and not push wages up too fast, because this necessarily results in price increases. As the cost of living then rises, labor unions feel the need to demand even higher wage scales.

The government itself has unwittingly played a part in causing unemployment by raising the minimum wage for workers throughout the country. Nearly all of the workers affected are not members of unions, as they do a variety of jobs. But the labor leaders know that if the minimum-wage rate goes up, other wage scales promptly have to be advanced to keep in line with the basic compensation. Unfortunately, as minimum-wage rates rise, many employees who had part-time work find themselves forced out of their jobs because it is not much more expensive for an employer to get full-time workers at the new scales or else to try to eliminate the part-time operations altogether.

There are many problems of this kind which would seem to require intimate consultations between government and labor leaders. Up to now, while the AFL-CIO has maintained an economic staff, the government has had little opportunity to reach the leadership of the labor unions — often motivated by internal politics — and tell them what is meant by "voluntary restraint."

THUS, LABOR would indeed be getting higher wage payments for its members if prosperity were sustained on a sound economic basis.

An exchange of ideas at a meeting such as has been brought about by the AFL-CIO could be fruitful. It could lay the basis for what has long been sought — a sense of responsibility on the part of labor-union leadership for the welfare not merely of its members but of the very businesses which must earn a fair return on the risk capital invested.

Maybe some day there will be still another type of conference — also without reporters present — as businessmen and labor leaders exchange views and begin to recognize the realities of a system of free enterprise.

MOMENT OF MEDITATION

RELIGION IS FOR ALL
Religion was designed by God to meet the needs of all people. Religion is the process by which man makes his life acceptable to God. It is a fact that is clearly taught in the Bible, that all people who are old enough to know the difference in right and wrong in religious matters, are guilty of committing sins in God's sight. Paul stated in Rom. 3:23 that all of us sin and fall short of the glory of God. In James the first chapter and verses thirteen through fifteen, James teaches clearly that we commit sin when we are drawn away of our own lust and enticed. From these verses we conclude that all of us are guilty of committing sins in the sight of God.
Since religion is the process of making ourselves right in God's sight, all of us should be greatly concerned about religion. However, many times when we talk to people about religion and our responsibility to God, they reply by saying that they are just not interested. They tell us that they do not object to other people being religious, but they just do not want to be bothered. Many times a Father will express a concern that his wife and children have the full opportunity to attend services of the church. The same man who will express this concern that his family attend the worship, may make it clear that he himself is just not interested. He seems to think that he just does not need religion. By his he is expressing the thought that religion is fine for women and children but that it just isn't for men.
Friends, religion is needed by everyone. The rich or the poor, the young or the old, the sick or the well, all are in need of making their lives right in the sight of God. Jesus came into the world to seek and to save the lost. Lk. 19:10. He shed his precious blood so that we might have the hope of redemption from our sins. Mt. 26:28. Jesus sent his disciples into the world with this message of salvation. Read this in Mt. 28:19, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." His disciples did carry this message to the world. As they went about teaching people about Christ and our hope of salvation, they encouraged people to believe in Christ and to be baptized so that they could have the forgiveness of their sins. This message was for all people. In fact, it is still for all people. Since we are all guilty of sin against God, all of us stand in the need of believing in Christ and being baptized for the remission of our sins. Acts 2:38. Have you obeyed these instructions of the Lord? Why not attend services tomorrow?

Group Forms New Leo Club

NEW CUMBERLAND — David Chupa has been elected president of the New Cumberland LEO Club, a new organization.

It is a young men's community service organization sponsored by the Lions Club.

Other officers are: Edsel Emery Jr., vice president; Ed Fields, treasurer, and Larry Manypenny, secretary. Edsel Emery Sr. will serve as adviser.

The 13 who attended the meeting adopted a constitution and bylaws.

The club is open to young men 15 through 21. Its objective is to carry out community service projects of its own choosing.

The program was announced by Lions International earlier this year.

It is hoped to offer young men the opportunity to gain experience and develop leadership in the areas of community service.

Couple To Study At Institute Of Music In Austria

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mullen of Kingsport, Tenn., former local residents, left Tuesday for Salzburg, Austria, where they will attend the Orff Institute at the Mozarteum Academy for Music and Dramatic Art.

Mullen will be studying an approach for teaching music to children which incorporates improvisation, instruments, singing and dancing and which has proven successful in therapy. It originally was begun by the noted German composer, Dr. Carl Orff, who currently is composing ballets primarily.

Mrs. Mullen, the former Joy Kaufman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland T. Kaufman of 419 Vine St., plans to study voice.

Her parents will visit with them while on a tour of Europe in May.

Louie M. Perkins, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mose M. Perkins, of 356 Penn Ave., a student of Mrs. Neely for three years, will play various selections.

Alison Dickey, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dickey of 416 Ohio Ave. will sing a capella.

3 Girls Injured In Auto Accident

Three area teen-age girls were treated at Rochester General Hospital for injuries following an accident on Engle Rd. in Industry Friday.

Injured were: Christine Kovack, 16, of Ohioville, the driver, abrasions of both legs; Shirley Madish, 17, of Industry, a laceration of the left shoulder and an injury to the left leg, and Karen Queen, 17, of Industry, laceration of the left leg and multiple abrasions of both legs.

Industry police said the vehicle was traveling north on Engle Rd. when Miss Kovack lost control and the auto went over a hill. The 1965 sedan, owned by Mrs. Charlotte Kovack, was demolished.

Kent Action Backed By Most Fraternities

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Four fires were deliberately set in the Student Union building on the University of Toledo campus early this morning, firemen said. All were minor.

The most serious fire was at the rear of the bowling alley which resulted in $300 damage. There were two fires in maintenance closets and one in a wastebasket.

The fires apparently were set by pranksters, firemen said.

Vandals Damage Ho

SUMMITVILLE — Vandals damaged the side of an unoccupied house south of here by firing shotgun pellets at it, Constable Forrest Young reported today. Eight panels in the house owned by Ronald Burchette of Minerva were damaged. The structure is located along Route 44 about a mile south of here. An investigation is continuing.

City Hospital Treats 14 In Emergencies

Fourteen were treated and released at City Hospital Friday, including four area industrial workers.

Robert Halfhill of 521 Lisbon St., Wellsville, an employee at the Ohio Brass Co. in Newell, was treated for a laceration of the right elbow after a fall at work.

James Hillyer of 818 St. George St., an employee at Patterson Industries, sustained a laceration of the right index finger on a piece of metal and was treated and released.

Terry Medley of 1221 Anderson Ave., Wellsville, an employee of the H. K. Porter Co., was treated for a contusion of the right hand, when caught between two car doors at work.

Fiery Crash Hurts 2 Men

NEW CUMBERLAND — Two persons were injured in a fiery crash at the south end of town today at 12:10 a.m.

Police Chief William Webster, who was on the scene with the New Cumberland volunteer fire department, said an auto driven by Robert V. Mayhew, 19, of 100 Commerce St., New Cumberland, was traveling south on Route 2 when it hit an embankment, crossed the road and went over a 10-foot drop and burst into flames.

A witness said Mayhew was thrown from the vehicle, and a passenger Donald R. Jones, 22, of 409 S. Chestnut St., New Cumberland, escaped from the burning vehicle.

Both were taken to the Weirton General Hospital where Mayhew was treated for lacerations of the body and Jones was admitted for treatment of chest injuries. He is listed in "fair" condition.

Firemen extinguished the blaze. Webster said Mayhew will be cited for reckless driving.

Club Will Elect At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — Members of the Women's Civic Club will elect officers at the May 8 meeting, which will feature a dinner at a restaurant in Canton.

The club met this week at the home of Mrs. Willard Hillyer, with 15 present. Members will help solicit funds for the cancer drive this month.

The program included yoga exercises led by Mrs. Dominic Fabatino.

The hostess served lunch, assisted by Mrs. Earl Rogers and Mrs. Clifford McKarn. The table was covered with a pink cloth, centered with fresh fruit and flanked with white tapers in silver holders.

Four Fires Are Set At Toledo U. Building

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Presidents of 17 of Kent State University's 22 fraternities Friday gave school officials a petition supporting their handling of student protests on campus earlier this week.

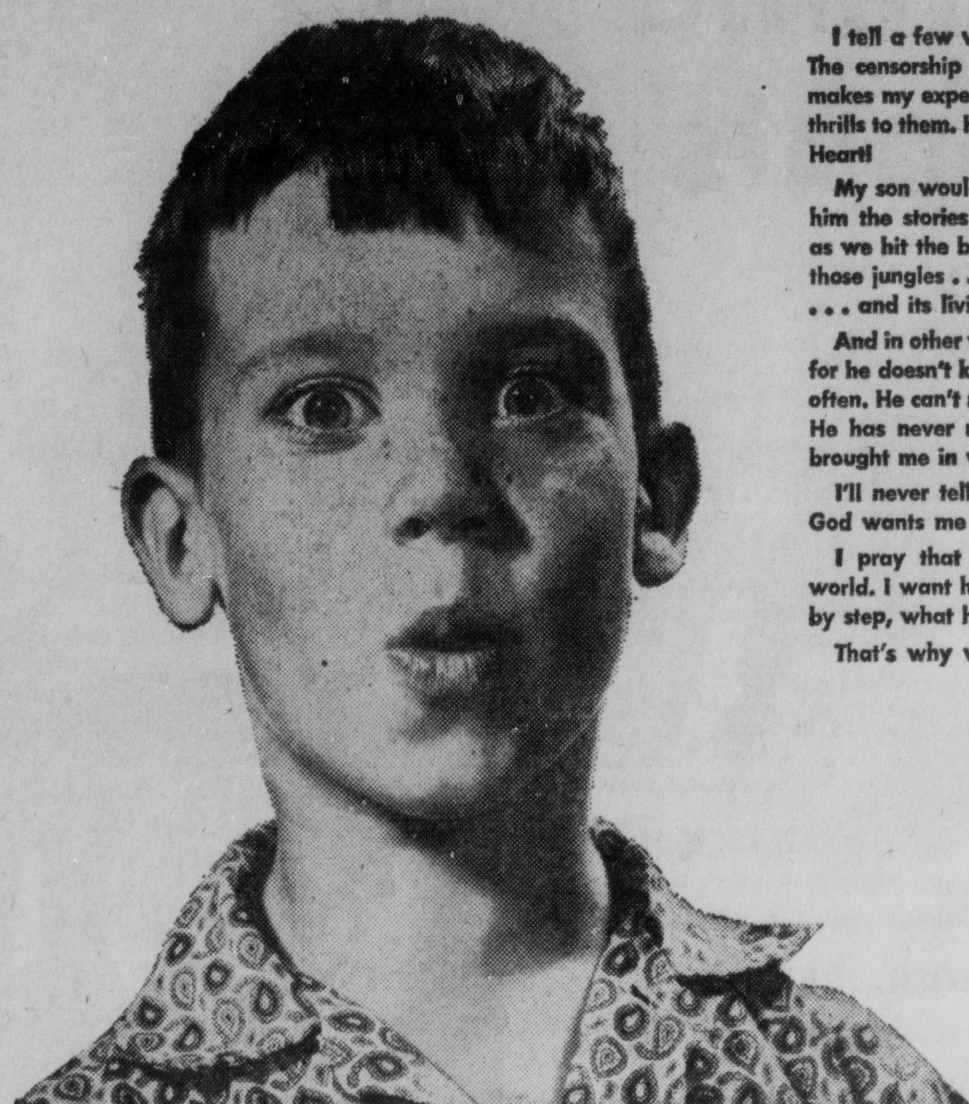

Six persons were arrested and later banned from campus by scuffled with police Tuesday while trying to force their way into Kent's administration building to present demands.

Kent officials also suspended the charter of the campus chapter of Students for a Democratic Society, which organized the demonstration.

Lisbon Police Jail 2

LISBON — Police charged two motorists with driving while under the influence of alcohol early today and placed them in jail in default of $300 bond. Scheduled for hearings Tuesday in Mayor's Court are James F. Dillon of Salem, cited at 1:28 a.m., and Walter Moss, 34, of Randolph, arrested at 4:20 a.m.

AMAZED...

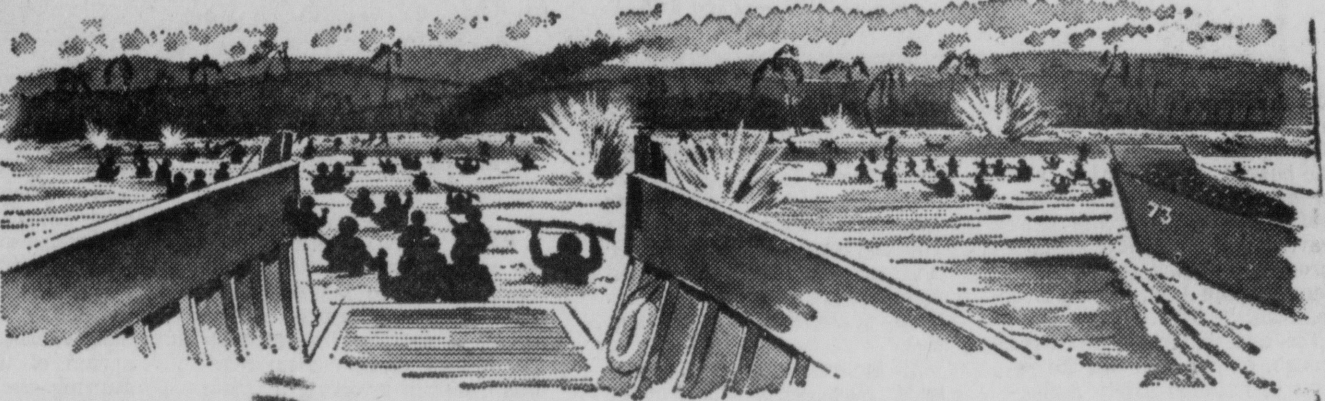

I tell a few war stories—just like this one. The censorship of good taste and modesty makes my experiences pretty drab. But Jerry thrills to them. He's proud of his Dad's Purple Heart!

My son would be amazed if I were to tell him the stories we never tell, our thoughts as we hit the beach... what it was like in those jungles... what war does to its dead... and its living.

And in other ways Jerry would be amazed for he doesn't know me as a man who prays often. He can't realize the depth of my Faith. He has never met the brave chaplain who brought me in when I was hit.

I'll never tell Jerry all of it. I don't think God wants me to!

I pray that Jerry's may be a different world. I want him to learn day by day, step by step, what his religion will mean to him! That's why we're a church-going family!

Look Out For Traffic 'Hot Spots'

By ROBERT POPP

If you're driving on a main thoroughfare in East End or West End and see a young motorist approaching from a side street or from the rear, it's time to begin evasive action. Because the chances are strong that you may be involved in a collision.

That's a pattern indicated in the 87 traffic accidents investigated by East Liverpool police during March.

One month's accident reports do not offer a sufficient sample, of course, to put a finger on a couple of sites or one age group as major factors in the crashes. But the pattern is strong enough to indicate some significant clues, at least.

THE REPORTS show that the

your wife has been telling you for years is true — not many women are involved in accidents.

The 87 collisions in March involved 112 drivers — 89 males and 23 females. Forty-three of the drivers were in the 16-25 age bracket. Of that group, the drivers 18 and 19 were involved in 14 mishaps. So the young drivers were involved in roughly 33 per cent of the accidents.

TWENTY-SIX drivers between 26 and 34 were involved in crashes. The rest of the motorists were scattered pretty generally across the age spectrum from 36 to 85.

The statistics show a collision is more likely to occur at an intersection where there is three worst stretches for accidents are the four-lane W. 8th St. segment in West End; the busy E. and W. 3rd St. area in the downtown, which funnels traffic onto and off the Freeway, and the long thoroughfare through East End comprised of Pennsylvania Ave., Harvey Ave. and Elizabeth St.

The age pattern is strong enough, too, to bear out the reports of national safety authorities and insurance companies, which show that comparatively young motorists figure in an unusually high number of crashes.

And they prove, too, that what no traffic control or only a stop sign. The incidence is lower at corners where traffic lights are in service.

But sometimes traffic lights are responsible indirectly for a collision. A car that halts for a signal sometimes is rammed from the rear by another vehicle whose driver is inattentive.

At the uncontrolled intersections, particularly where sight distance is bad, the collisions result most frequently from autos pulling onto a thoroughfare into the path of oncoming traffic. Lack of proper depth perception and an optimistic view of the relative speed of the oncoming car also seem to be factors.

REAR-END collisions crop up most frequently in traffic lanes during peak hours. If a line of traffic halts and just one driver is not alert, it can trigger a very costly "chain reaction" mishap involving a whole series of autos.

Hit-skip crashes come in all varieties. Usually they involve parked autos, but sometimes an oncoming car strikes a moving auto and the offending driver escapes, despite efforts of the other to catch him.

In writing accident reports, East Liverpool police use a comprehensive form recommended by the National Safety Council. In addition to all the usual data on the drivers and their vehicles, it calls for a diagram of the accident scene, showing the positions of the cars, and a host of facts on road and weather conditions, the type of pavement and an indication whether either of the motorists had been drinking.

Six of the March crashes were on E. 3rd St. at or near a cross street. Two more were on intersecting streets near E. 3rd. E. 3rd and Walnut, controlled by a stop sign, accounted for four of the mishaps. E. 3rd at Washington, W. 3rd at Jefferson and W. 3rd at Persimmon Alley had one each.

MARKET AT E. 3rd St. and College at E. 3rd St. showed one crash each.

There were 12 crashes on East End's main thoroughfare. Two were on Pennsylvania Ave. in front of a shopping plaza. Two were at Pennsylvania Ave. and Elizabeth St., one at Elizabeth St. at Anna Ave., two on Harvey Ave. at Putnam St., one at Pennsylvania Ave. and Dewey Ave. one at Pennsylvania Ave. and Oakland Ave., two on Pennsylvania Ave. at Boyce St. and one at Pennsylvania Ave. and Central Ave.

March showed eight mishaps on the W. 8th St. stretch. There were four collisions on W. 8th St. at Shadyside Ave., one on W. 8th near a Freeway interchange, another near the Patterson Field entrance, one at W. 8th and Jefferson and one at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts.

Although it's heavily traveled, Lisbon St. saw only five mishaps in March. There were three at Lisbon and W. 9th Sts., reputed to be one of the most dangerous intersections in the

St. Clair Ave. saw crashes only at McKinnon and Princeton Aves., intersections south of the new three-lane pavement. There also were mishaps on Burrows Ave. at St. Clair and Gardendale Ave. at St. Clair.

The rest of the accident sites are scattered all over the city map, without any real pattern. Most of the major downtown streets saw at least one crash during the month. And there were crashes on Bradshaw, Drury Ln., East Alley, Smithfield St., Ridge Alley, Union St., St. George St. and many other locations.

Twenty of the collisions were blamed on the failure of one driver of the other to yield the right-of-way. Six were blamed on drivers who crashed stop signs or traffic lights. Fourteen were seen as violation of the so-called assured clear distance law, which usually boils down to ramming into the car ahead.

Three motorists were charged with driving while intoxicated and four were accused of not having their vehicles under control. Four more were charged with crossing a center line. Mechanical failure was blamed in two collisions.

Twelve accidents were classified as hit-and-run cases. They involved vehicles which ran into parked cars or private property or struck a moving vehicle.

IN 22 CASES, most of them one-car accidents, a vehicle struck a parked auto or private property — usually a utility pole. Two motorists ran into street excavations. Another mishap was blamed on a wheel falling off a nauto, throwing it out of control. In another instance, a parked car drifted off a privately-owned lot and hit a parked car on a street.

The times at which the mishaps occurred showed no real pattern. The highest accident frequency was shown at 3:15 p.m., when there were four crashes. Three each were recorded at 12 midnight, 12:30 a.m., 1:45 a.m., 3 a.m., 2:30 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. A compilation showed the two longest accident-free periods fell between 8:30 and 9:45 a.m. and 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. Only 10 accidents were recorded for the whole month in the evening hours between 7 and 10. The mishap rate nearly doubled in the period between 10 p.m. and midnight.

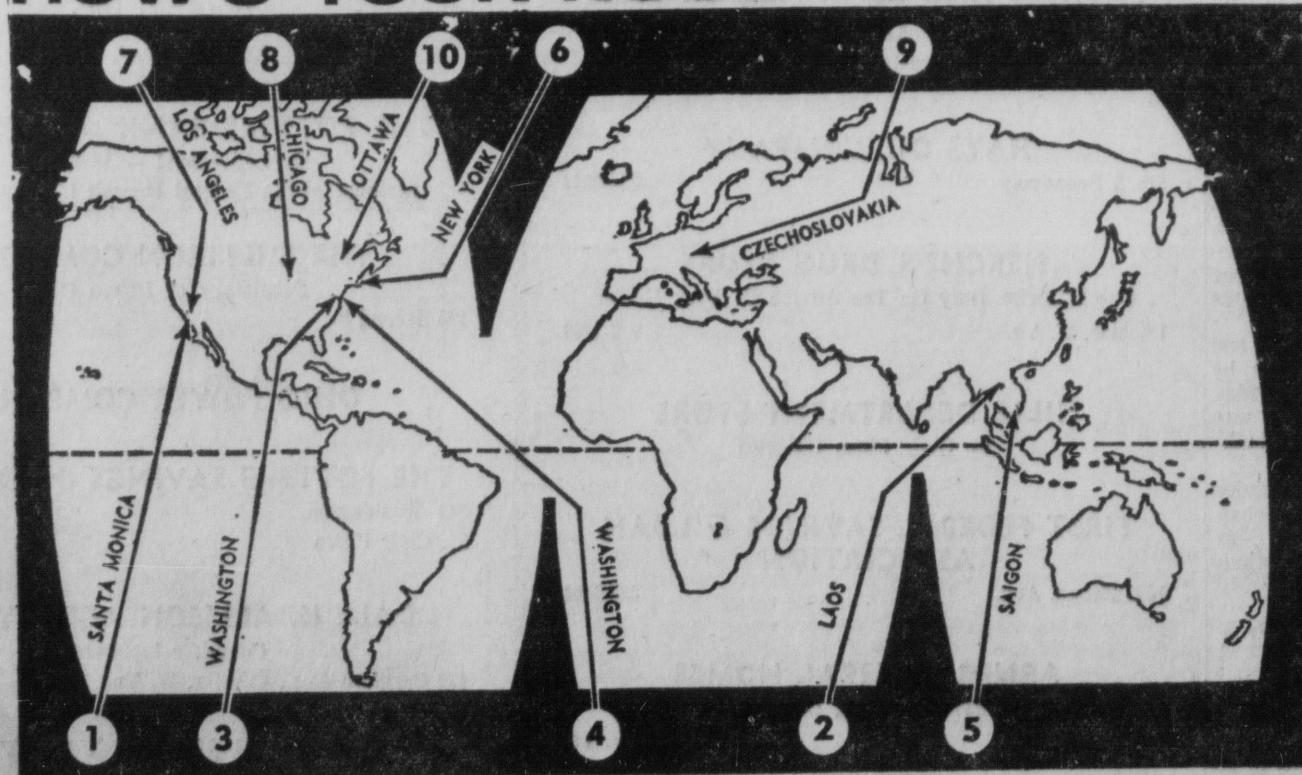

The reports show 14 drivers, six passengers and one pedestrian were hurt in the March accidents. Weather was only a small factor. Only two of last month's crashes were blamed on slippery pavements.

8 Kent Cuties Seek Queen Title

These eight girls competed this week to represent Kent State University's branch here in the Campus Day events at the university May 10. They are, left to right Debbie Corsello of Wellsville RD 1; Lynette Hughes of Toronto; Karen Shoff of Lakeview Estates, Calcutta; Deneane Thomas of East Liverpool RD 2; Sally Anderson of Haywood St.; Vickie Smith of Toronto; Nancy Doland of 601 Orchard Grove Ave., and Carol Weber of East Liverpool RD 2. The winner chosen by balloting of the student body at the local center, will be announced tonight at 10:30 during a dance in the center at E. 4th St. and Broadway.

Stamps In The News

The Scandinavian countries are heralding "100 years of postal cooperation" this year with a common issue of stamps bearing the same design. Featured on the stamps is an unusual ancient drawing of five Viking ships which originally appeared on an ancient coin. The countries honoring the occasion with the special issue are Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Finland and Iceland. The designer of the stamps is Sven Ake Gustafsson of Sweden.

CHINESE MUSIC dates back some 4,000 years. Until recently such music played on unique instruments had developed into a fundamental aspect of Chinese culture. In an attempt to revive the ancient music and develop a greater appreciation of it, the Republic of China (Formosa) has issued four new stamps depicting different instruments, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. Appearing on the set are: the Sheng, which resembles a teapot with symmetrical bamboo pipes protruding from one end; the p'i-p'a, which looks like a mandolin or ukulele; the Cheng, which is a 16-string zither played horizontally; and the Ti, which is a horizontal flute.

The four Chinese music stamps are now available at your local stamp dealer or stamp department.

THE MAIL BAG: To ex-Marine Sgt. Paul T. Boyd of Mitchell, Ind. — You can obtain your sets of stamps honoring the 25th anniversary of the Battle of Tarawa issued by the Gilbert and Ellice Islands directly from the Crown Agents Representative, 3100 Massachusetts Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C. 20008. Accompany your request with a money order of 50 cents per set.

To Mrs. W. B. Cotner of Lima, Ohio — the Australian mail service from Mt. Kosciuszko will cost approximately 25 cents for the set of four stamps. Send your addressed envelopes together with a money order for this amount to the Officer in Charge, Philatelic Bureau, 664 Bourke St., Melbourne, Victoria, 3000 Australia.

To Harold Hager of Clinton, Iowa — I suggest you write directly to the Alabama Centennial Commission, Birmingham, Ala., and tell them of your request for the contest rules.

COLLECTORS OF U.S. airmail stamps are wondering if their specialty is at an end. If the new U.S. postal plans go into effect, it will mean that the present 6-cent first class will be raised to 7 cents — and all mail will be transported by the fastest available means. Thus there would be no airmail stamps needed!

SCOTT'S NEW U. S. Checklist booklet is available for 69 cents. Compiled by James B. Hatcher, the checklist provides instant information based on the Scott catalogue and identifies every major variety of U.S. stamps. The pocket-size edition enables collectors to carry their inventory with them wherever they go.

HOCKEY MAY BE Canada's No. 1 sport, but curling advocates will argue the point. To honor curling, Canada has issued a new 6-cent stamp featuring game action. The Canadian Curling Assn. estimates there are half a million curlers in that country, more than 1,900 curling clubs affiliated with the association and many more non-affiliated.

Casper, Devlin Tied In Masters

Arnie Palmer Just Makes Cut By Stroke

By BOB GREIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Arnie Palmer was an aging also-ran, his head down and his game in tatters, trailing such performers as B.R. McLendon, Roberto Bernardini and Takashi Kono today as a trimmed-down field set out in pursuit of Billy Casper and Bruce Devlin in the Masters golf tournament.

The once-proud ruler of all he surveyed in the golfing world vowed he's never quit trying, but, in the big ones, it doesn't seem to matter much anymore.

He missed the cut in last year's Masters, hasn't won a major title in five years, hasn't been a factor in a major event since collapsing before Casper in the 1966 U.S. Open, and made the cut for the final two rounds of the Masters this year by just one stroke.

"As long as I feel okay, I'm going to keep on trying to win," he said Friday after shooting a 75 for 148, 11 shots back on Casper and Devlin going into the third round on the 6,980-yard, par 72 Augusta National course.

But the grit was out of the statement.

"I've never hit the ball quite so badly. Right now I don't have the confidence to do much about it, but I'll keep on trying," said the elderly side for an athlete.

He simply couldn't do anything right in the sweltering heat, taking bogeys on four holes, while two-time U.S. Open champion Casper and Devlin, a reed-slim Australian, were the most successful in a day-long, frustrating struggle with brutal pin placements.

"The pins were extremely difficult," Casper said after a 71 to go with his opening 66.

"The flags were in very difficult positions," Devlin echoed after a 70, also for 137. "I have never seen them any tougher."

The observations generally were agreed to by a field that fired and fell back, leaving Casper and Devlin with a three-stroke lead over lanky George Archer and veteran Dan Sikles, tied at 140. Sikles had a second-round 71 and Archer a 73.

It was two more strokes back to a group of nine deadlocked at 142—Charles Coody, Dave Stockton, Lionel Hebert, Al Gelberger, Tom Weiskopf, Bruce Crampton, Tommy Aarn, Miam Rudolph and Miller Barber.

Big Jack Nicklaus still was a factor at 143 after a second-round 75 and Gary Player, the little South African, who, along with Nicklaus and Palmer, once made up the awesome Big Three, was at 144.

U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino was at 146, one stroke back of PGA king Julius Boros. Defending champion Bob Goalby was at 146 and Roberto de Vicenzo missed the cut at 150.

Casper, continuing to play cautiously, had one bogey, when he three-putted the sixth, and two birds. The first came on a 40-foot putt at 14 and the other after a blind approach to the 17th stopped three feet from the pin.

Devlin, playing about a half-hour behind Casper, caught him with a whopping, 45-foot birdie putt on the 18th. He'd taken bogeys on Nos. 3 and 5, and said the turning point of the round came with a birdie on the seventh.

Michigan State And Purdue Tie In Golf Tourney

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Robert Kepler Intercollegiate Golf Tournament went into the 36-hole wrapup at Ohio State University today with Purdue and Michigan State tied for the lead.

After 18 holes Friday, the Boilermakers and Spartans had totals of 385.

Three strokes back of the leaders was Indiana at 388, while Ohio University totaled 391, Tennessee 394 and Ohio State 396.

The official totals are figured by compiling the best five scores from each six-man team.

Leading in the race for individual honors was Larry Murphy of Michigan State, who shot a 38-35-73, one over par on the 7,120-yard Scarlet layout.

In a three-way tie a stroke behind were Steve Cisco of Indiana, Graham Cooke of Michigan State and Slugger White of Ohio U.

Strong winds on the Ohio State course contributed to high scores, as 53 of the 84 competitors shot 80 or over.

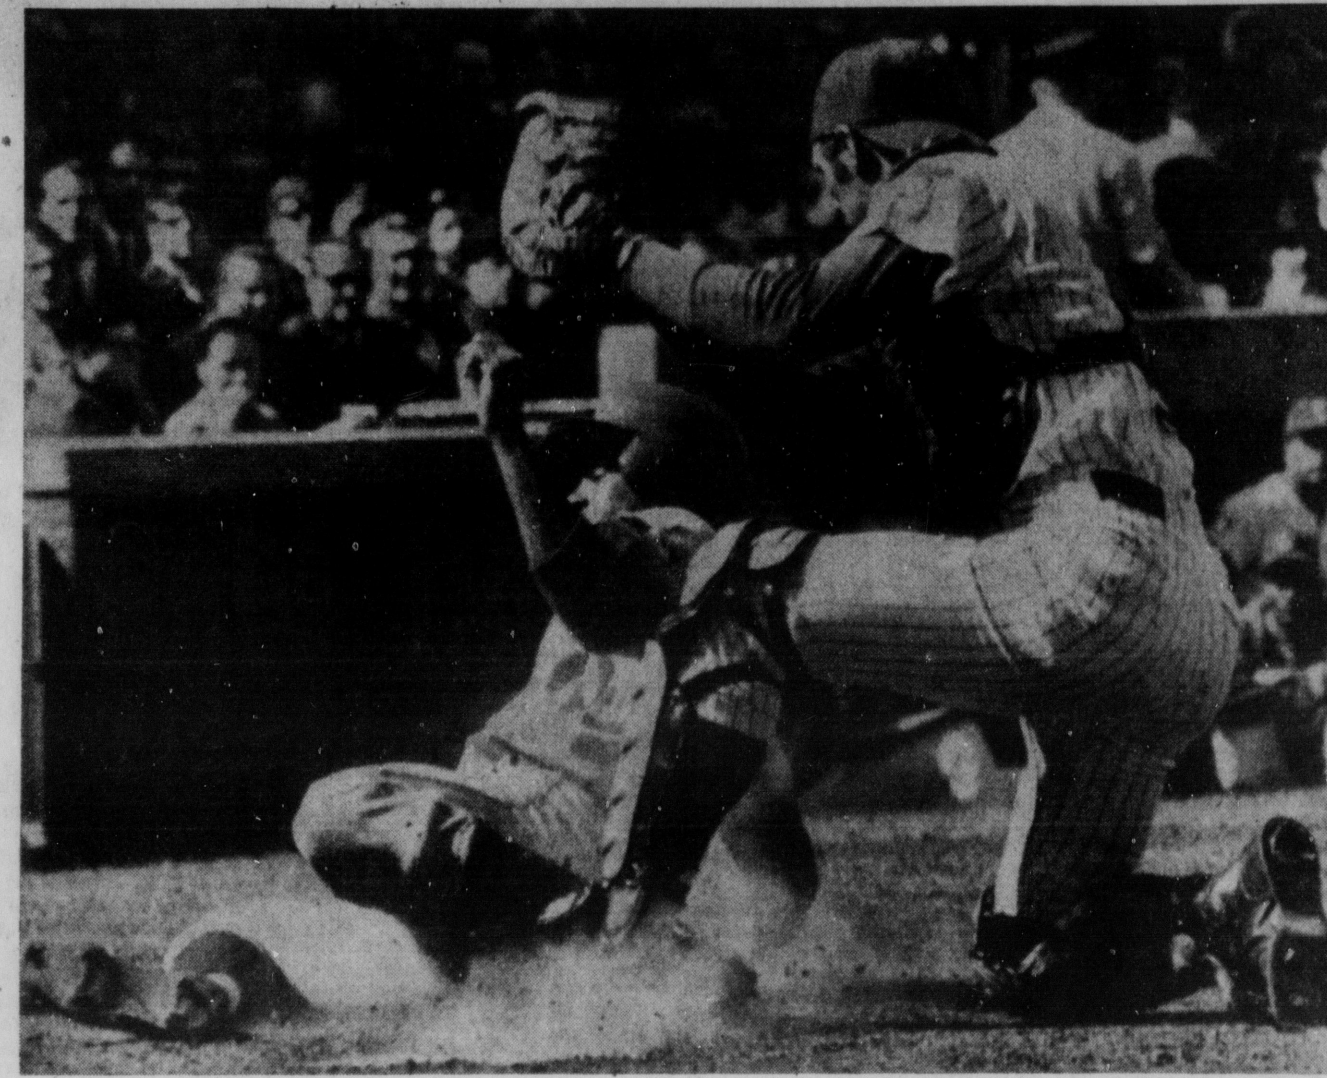

Rounding out the 14-team field were Miami of Ohio 397, Notre Dame 401, Illinois 405, Marshall 408, Cincinnati 412, Kentucky 415, Michigan 417, and Bowling Green 419.

ELHS Nine Bows 8-6 At Wellsburg

WELLSBURG — Wellsburg came up with three runs in the sixth inning then went on to blank the East Liverpool Pottery in the seventh to gain an 8-6 victory here Friday.

The loss was the second in three games for the Pottery. East Liverpool broke a 3-3 tie in the fourth inning by scoring a run then added another in the fifth for a 5-2 lead. Wellsburg bounced back for two runs in the last of the fifth to tie the game at 5-5.

The Pottery took a 6-5 lead in the sixth inning on a walk, a single by Dan Cunningham and an error on the third baseman which allowed the run to score.

In the last of the sixth, Wellsburg put together three hits and two walks for three runs to move in front for good. Bill Montgomery hurled for the Pottery allowing nine hits. Montgomery was the losing hurler and Doyle picked up the victory for Wellsburg.

East Liverpool collected seven hits with second baseman Dan Cunningham lashing three safeties including a double and triple and 2 RBIs. Montgomery helped his own cause with a double and single and John Hanev drove in two of the Pottery's runs.

Wellsburg's batting star was Bill Pettini who drove in four runs on a pair of singles. It was Pettini's single in the sixth inning with the bases loaded that sent home two runs.

The Pottery were scheduled to meet South Side this afternoon.

Southern Local Nine Opens Play Monday

Southern Local, which didn't win a baseball game last season, should be quite a bit improved this time around, according to coach Al Girone.

There are eight veterans on hand, including three left-handed pitchers, junior George Thompson and sophomores Bob Diehl and Kim Needham.

Jack Thompson, letterman junior, is the top catching prospect, with sophomores Roger Jones and Dean Hayes also available.

Girl Jockey Not Injured After Spill

By JOHN VAN GIESON

MIAMI (AP) — Diane Crump, the first female jockey to race a horse at a major American track, Friday became the first female jockey to fall off a horse at a major American track.

And although she hit hard, she's taking it lightly.

The petite girl jockey was involved in a three-horse spill in the fourth race at Gulfstream Park and was knocked unconscious. But she recovered in time to bound from the stretcher and walk to the ambulance.

She was taken to a hospital for precautionary X-rays, but was released later.

Miss Crump was aboard Misquoa when the horse appeared to clip the heels of Micky Rablere and stumble. Misquoa fell, pitching the slender girl to the ground.

Putter Power, under Don Brumfield, fell over Misquoa, throwing Brumfield. Apprentice Bobby Breen on Bouncing Swift, veered to the outside and also fell off.

In the hospital emergency room, Miss Crump said, "I was just starting to make my move."

She said she could remember nothing after that.

"I was out cold for a while," she said, and then added quickly, "I'll be riding again just as soon as I get out of here."

The right side of her face was bruised and scraped and she suffered a cut lip. She left the hospital wearing a neck brace.

Brumfield had two cuts on the forehead and a sprained right wrist. He canceled his last three mounts. Breen was not hurt.

Undaunted by Miss Crump's mishap, Arlene Ditmore joined the ranks of women jockeys in the sixth race. She finished fifth aboard Nickel Sale, a 20-1 shot.

Later, she commented, "It's a lot different than exercising horses in the morning."

Moose Hurls 7-1 Victory

By HAL BOCK

A good trade, it has been said, is one which helps both teams. On Friday, at least, the Orlando Cepeda-Joe Torre trade was a very good one for the Atlanta Braves and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Cepeda and Torre both hammered home runs, leading Atlanta and St. Louis to victories. The Braves tagged Cincinnati 6-4 and the Cardinals won their first after three losses, nipping New York 6-5.

In other National League games Friday, Chicago shut out Montreal 1-0 in 12 innings, Pittsburgh dropped Philadelphia 7-1, Los Angeles battered Houston 9-3 and San Francisco blanked San Diego 8-0.

In the American League, New York rapped Detroit 9-4, Boston edged Cleveland 2-1 in 16 innings, Seattle shut out Chicago 7-0, Oakland blanked Kansas City 5-0, Washington shut out Baltimore 4-0 and California downed Minnesota 5-3.

Both sides in the Cepeda-Torre training camp swap looked good after the two sluggers unloaded on the Reds and Mets.

Cepeda's leadoff homer in the eighth inning snapped a 4-4 tie and gave the unbeaten Braves their fourth straight victory. Atlanta added an insurance run and then Cecil Upshaw came out of the bullpen to nail down the final out in Ron Reed's victory.

The homer was Cepeda's only hit of the game and it was the only one the Braves needed. Torre had an even better time against the Mets.

Potter Golf Team Easily Wins No. 3

East Liverpool High School's golf team made it three straight Friday with a lopsided 167-287 win over Carrollton at the country club.

Andy Petrick was medalist with a 39 while Bill McHenry and Bob Kinsey recorded 42's and Ralph Heffner 44.

The No. 5 player for East Liverpool, Ken Johnson, also fired a 39 for the Pottery but his score did not count in the team total.

The Pottery meet Leetonia Monday at Copeland Hills.

Beaver Local Nine Romps At Midland

Beaver Local's golf team dropped its first match in three starts when Columbiana won 165-174 Friday at the Valley Golf Course in Columbiana.

Dale Reash fired a two-par 37 to lead Columbiana while brother Dan and Cliff Newell had 42's and Jim Powers 44.

Rick Metz paced the Beavers with 41 while Bob Eardley had 43, Dave Bentz 44 and John Torma 46.

Beaver Local plays at Salem Tuesday.

Lisbon's Track Team Wins 2nd

With Mike Kodrich and Ken Pittenger winning two events each, Lisbon shaded Crestview 65-62 in track Friday at Crestview.

Kodrich won the 880 yard run in 2:22.8 and the mile in 5:15. Pittenger took two field events in winning the shot put at 42 feet 4 inches and the discus at 111 feet, 10 inches.

The victory leaves Lisbon with a 2-2 record. The Blue Devils face West Branch and Southeast Tuesday at West Branch.

Shackled by a 1-for-14 slump as the Cardinals dropped their first three starts, Torre jumped out of it with a single, double and homer. His double started a two-run rally in the third against Jerry Koosman and then he tagged a 400-foot homer in the seventh.

The Mets were so shook up by Torre that they gave him an intentional walk in the ninth following Vada Pinson's two-out double. Mike Shanno followed with a two-run double that gave the Cards enough of a cushion to stand off Cleon Jones' two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

Torre was the subject of winter-long trade speculation, with most of the rumors sending him to New York, his home town. But the Mets backed out at the last moment and the Braves sent him to St. Louis for Cepeda instead. It was a move neither club regretted Friday.

UND—Nl Rdup St 115: Friday The Cubs won their fourth straight when Billy Williams' 12th-inning single drove in Don Kessinger with the only run of the game against Montreal. Chicago's Joe Niekro and Carl Morton of the Expos had battled through the first nine scoreless innings before each left for a pinch hitter.

Pittsburgh's Bob Moose fired a five-hitter and the Pirates won their fourth in a row, beating the Phillies. Jerry May had his second home run of the season for Pittsburgh.

Rookie Ted Sizemore smacked three hits, including a bases-loaded triple, and drove in four runs, leading Los Angeles past Houston. Sizemore's triple broke a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning and then the shortstop stole home for another run. Bill Russell, another rookie, homered for the Dodgers.

Willie Mays tagged his first home run of the season and the 588th of his career and Ray Sadecki threw a six-hitter as San Francisco halted its three-game losing streak with an 8-0 victory over San Diego. It was the first loss for the Padres, who committed five errors.

Counts Gets Key Bucket

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — "You try to follow the ball coming off the backboard, but there's a little luck in getting that rebound," explained Mel Counts.

With 24 seconds left in the opening game of the Western playoffs of the National Basketball Association, the 7-footer had the luck and the shot and with a 95-93 victory, his Los Angeles Lakers hold a 1-0 edge over Atlanta.

The Lakers trailed 93-92 Friday night when Keith Erickson shot. Counts took the rebound and followed with a field goal while being fouled by Bill Bridges. He then sank the free throw.

Atlanta trailed by 15 points on three occasions, but then rallied late in the third period, aided by some frigid shooting by the Lakers, and had gone ahead in the fourth.

Zelmo Beaty scored 29 for the losers as high scorer in the game and Coach Richie Guerin commented, "We can come back. If Beaty gets his shots on Sunday, it will be different."

On Sunday, New York plays at Boston in an afternoon game with the Celtics leading that series 2-1, while Atlanta plays again in Los Angeles that night in the best four-of-seven set.

With little Johnny Egan pacing the attack with 15 points, the Lakers surged ahead 53-40 at halftime, before 16,190 at the Forum.

Near the end of the third period, the home club went cold and for a total of 6 minutes, 53 seconds, extending into the fourth quarter, they didn't score a field goal. By then Atlanta led 82-77.

Counts ended the drought. Then he, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West paced a winning comeback helped by the rebounding of 7-foot-2 Wilt Chamberlain.

It was Chamberlain who rebounded an Atlanta shot in the final seconds to kill off one of the two final Hawk chances. On the second, Paul Silas missed shots, the latter right at the buzzer.

West led Laker scorers with 25 points while Egan had 18, Baylor 16 and Chamberlain 15 in addition to grabbing 29 rebounds.

Walt Hazzard scored 18 for Atlanta and Bridges 14.

No games were scheduled in the American Basketball Association on Friday night.

Indians Lose 2-1 In 16; 3 AL Shutouts Recorded

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Baseball's rulemakers have taken a couple of inches away from the pitchers, but American League hitters appear to be in the same old rut.

Oakland's Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Seattle's Gary Bell and a trio of Washington Senators threw blanks Friday as AL pitchers demonstrated that 1969 could well become another Year of the Zero despite the lowering of the mound five inches in deference to last year's humbled hitters.

Hunter fired a six-hitter as the Athletics trimmed Kansas City 5-0 and Washington's Barry Moore, Casey Cox and Dennis Higgins teamed up to stop Baltimore 4-0 on six hits in night games. Bell scattered nine hits and stranded 14 Chicago base-runners in the Pilots' 7-0 matinee romp over the White Sox.

Joe Pepitone rapped four hits, including a two-run homer, as the New York Yankees ripped Detroit 9-4. Tom Satriano and Jay Johnstone clubbed two-run homers, leading California past

Minnesota 5-3 and Boston nipped Cleveland 2-1 in 16 innings.

In the National League, St. Louis edged the New York Mets 6-5, Pittsburgh downed Philadelphia 7-1, the Chicago Cubs shaded Montreal 1-0 in 12 innings, Atlanta beat Cincinnati 6-4, Los Angeles drubbed Houston 9-3 and San Francisco blanked San Diego 8-0.

Hunter, whose 13 victories last season include a perfect game against Minnesota, sent the expansion Royals to their first setback in three starts, striking out six along the way. Dave Duncan and Danny Cater each delivered two Oakland runs off loser Dave Morehead.

Light-hitting Ed Brinkman poked his first home run since 1967 and Tim Lincecum stroked a two-run single as the Senators reeled off their third straight victory after a season-opening loss. Higgins preserved the shutout by retiring pinch hitter Clay Dalrymple on his first pitch with the bases loaded in the eighth.

Bell worked out of several light jams and contributed a two-run double to the Pilots' attack. Don Mincher drilled a two-run homer off loser Joe Horlen.

Pepitone stroked a single and two doubles in addition to his homer and Roy White broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth with a two-run blast as the Yanks handed the world champion Tigers their first loss in three games. Lindy McDaniel picked up the victory in relief of rookie Bill Burbach.

Left-handed George Thomas spotted Minnesota a 1-0 lead on rookie George Mitterwald's homer, then checked Minnesota on three more hits until the ninth, when Tony Oliva and Bob Allison cracked successive homers. Hoyt Wilhelm then came out of the bullpen to get the last three outs.

Pinch hitter George Thomas delivered the winning run for Boston with a ground out in the 16th, giving the Red Sox their second triumph in three extra-inning struggles. Singles by Rico Petrocelli and Russ Gibson off Indians' reliever Jack Hamilton set the stage for Thomas.

N. Brighton Rolls 109-27 Over Western

Western Beaver only won two events as New Brighton romped to a 109-27 track victory Friday at Rochester.

Russ Engle won the 440-yard dash in 57.1 and Brad Schmitt took the high jump at 5 feet, 6 inches for Western's only victories.

The results follow:

Trout On Hook In Pennsylvania

BOILING SPRINGS, Pa. (AP) — With Gov. Shafer making it an "official" opener, the trout fishing season began in Pennsylvania today.

A half million anglers are expected to cast their lines into the state's streams and lakes.

The governor's office announced Shafer would try his luck in Yellow Breeches Creek in this Cumberland County community.

The legal 8 a.m. starting time was three hours later than in years gone by.

Fishing conditions were described as ideal by Robert J. Bielo, executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, who noted that water levels are excellent because of recent rains.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said it would be generally cool throughout the state with variable cloudiness over mountain areas and a high in the 50s and 60s.

The regular trout season will end Sept. 1, except in lakes and ponds over 10 acres in size where fishing is legal until Oct. 31.

Records Are Set As Relays Open

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Opening events Friday set a rugged pace for the 38th annual Mansfield Relays which move into full swing today.

New records were set in both of the two events run Friday.

Warren Kruger of Hazel Park, Mich., high school covered the two-mile run in 9:26.8, cracking the mark set in 1967 by John Jones of Elgin.

Jim Alexander of Granville finished second, followed by Dan McCrone of Cleveland St. Ignatius.

The Cincinnati Elder team of Pat Lenahan, Tom Wessling, Bill Galvin and Terry Schorsch shaved 10 seconds off the record set in 1966 by Rocky River in winning the four-mile relay in 18:10.0.

Pennsylvania's State College High School finished second and Niles was third.

Some 2,655 athletes from 298 high schools in six states and Canada are participating in the meet.

Walker Bowls 731 At Terrace

Emery Walker, who earlier this year had a perfect 300 game, continued his hot rolling Wednesday night in the Pin Busters League at Terrace Lanes.

Walker put together games of 259, 249 and 233 for a 731 series, one of the best in the area this season. Walker bowls for the Terrace Lanes team.

Championship Team Honored At Banquet

The Lee Cain Fencing team, champions of the 7th and 8th Grade Little Poters League were honored at a father-son banquet Friday night at the Gas Co. office in Glenmoor.

Trophies were presented to the players and coaches and the championship trophy donated by the Nonpareil Club was presented to Lee Cain.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Tasty 'Charcoal Bread'

DEAR FOLKS: When you are grilling steaks on those gray frosted charcoal briquettes and having French garlic bread at the same time, try my new discovery.

I take a big loaf of French bread and cut it in real thick slices. It's smoked charcoal bread!

Then spread BOTH sides of the bread using butter or oleo creamed with onion and garlic salt.

Wrap it in foil or put it back in its original wrapper to keep it from drying out. If you are having company, this may be done a day ahead of time and kept in your refrigerator.

As soon as your steaks are cooked and the coals are about "shot" and died down, take all the slices of buttered bread and lay them out on your grill.

Then cover them with foil. I use a lid from a turkey roaster if I am out of foil.

The "tent" will capture all the smoke and it will go into the bread. Oh . . . you talk about something different? This really is.

Turn each slice over after about a half-minute. May not take that long if your charcoal is too hot. Smoke the other side!

Don't let it stay too long.

By the time you get your hamburger patties or steak and salad on the table, it's ready.

This is also a fabulous idea for hamburger buns. Sure makes that old ordinary hamburger taste different.

I also learned that I could cut the extra loaf of French bread, spread it on both sides, smoke only slightly and freeze it!

Next time you are having spaghetti, remove the loaf from your freezer, wrap in foil and heat in the oven. You won't have your grill all fired up then, remember?

Ummmm . . . good.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: The only way we can afford vacation time is to play ahead long before the big day.

As campers, we tote a lot of food that is often expensive in the stores near campsites and tourist areas.

I buy a dab of this and a can of that, each payday for two months before vacation.

My rule of thumb is nothing packed in glass, or large boxes if possible, and only small cans unless I'm sure we'll use a whole large can at one meal.

I pack noodles, macaroni, spaghetti, biscuit mix, etc., in plastic sandwich bags in amounts enough for one meal per bag. No half-empty pots. For instant mashed potatoes, I measure one recipe of the potatoes, salt and powdered milk into the bag and label the outside with the number of servings and amount of butter and water to add.

Just before we start off, I add a few fresh potatoes and onions, plus fresh, not-too-ripe tomatoes and salad greens to my larder for the first few days.

On the last day of vacation, I clean up my "kitchen" by offering the leftovers to anyone nearby who is staying longer than we are — the last bit of shortening, sugar, bacon, etc., so I have less to pack and unpack and no spoilage on the road.

PAT FELLER.

DEAR HELOISE: Have you ever been infuriated to find the family cat up on the table or kitchen counter?

I often was, until our last kitten.

Since she was very small we have always fed her up on a two-and-a-half-foot stepladder.

That place became so firmly associated with food that she climbs up and yowls when she's hungry.

But she never goes looking any other place. She won't even eat from a bowl on the floor now!

House Struck By Auto Here

An area man was treated at City Hospital and released following a one-car accident at W. 9th St. and Lincoln Ave. Friday.

Charles Weyand, 25, of RD 1 suffered contusions of the chin when the auto he was driving struck a two-apartment house at the corner of Lincoln Ave. Weyand told police his brakes failed as he went to turn from Lincoln onto 9th St. Several children playing in the area and a police officer off duty at the time witnessed the accident.

Weyand was charged with driving while under license revocation, driving an unsafe vehicle and driving under false application.

Howard K. Wheatley of Wells-ville RD 1 is the owner of the house.

The accident was timed at 3:15 p.m.

A stuck accelerator pedal was blamed for a two-car accident at the intersection of 5th St. and East Alley Friday at 6:59 p.m.

William Edwin Foderi, 22, of 234 W. 3rd St. was driving west on 5th St. when his accelerator pedal stuck. He told police that as he reached down to free the pedal an auto driven by Donald E. Merritt, 20, of LaCroft Ave. pulled out of the alley and the collision resulted.

The 1961 auto Merritt was driving was owned by Franklin E. Moss of 5th Ave. LaCroft.

Police investigated a hit-skip accident on W. Drury Ln., 30 feet east of Peach Alley Friday at 11:29 a.m.

An unidentified car struck a large stone step at the home of William Stanford of 120 W. Drury Ln., moving the step about two feet and knocking out a chunk. A corner strip was also knocked off the house.

No one was injured in a two-car accident on Haywood St. about 200 yards east of Broad St. today at 3:24 a.m.

Harry E. Moore, 33, of 290 Haywood St. told police he was driving east on Haywood when his car pulled to the right and struck a parked car belonging to Clarence D. Hartley of 1218 Erie St.

Both Moore's 1969 sedan and Hartley's 1965 convertible were damaged on the right front fenders.

The Fontana Dam in North Carolina is the highest dam in the U.S. east of the Rockies.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF ELECTION ON ISSUE OF BONDS

Rev. Code, Sec. 133.11; 350.11 (G.) NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Board of Education of the Southern Local School District, Columbus, Carroll and Jefferson Counties, Ohio, passed on the 8th day of January, 1969, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Southern Local School District at the SPECIAL ELECTION to be held in the Southern Local School District, Columbus, Carroll and Jefferson Counties, Ohio, at the regular places of voting therein, on Tuesday, the 5th day of January, 1969, the question of issuing bonds of said Southern Local School District in the amount of ONE HUNDRED SIXTY THOUSAND AND NO-100 DOLLARS ($160,000.00) for the purpose of constructing, furnishing and equipping additional classroom facilities at the High School and improving school sites as provided by law.

The maximum number of years during which such bonds are to run is 16 years.

The estimated average additional tax rate amounts to Twelve Cents ($0.12) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, which is 1.2 mills for each one dollar of valuation, outside of the limitation imposed by Article XII, Section 2 of the Constitution, as certified by the County Auditor.

The Polls for said Election will open at 6:30 o'clock A. M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P. M. Eastern Daylight Time of said day.

By order of the Board of Elections, of Columbus County, Ohio, C. L. Stacey, Chairman

Rebecca Z. Resnick, Director

Dated January 8, 1969.

Review: April 5, 12, 19, 1969.

LEGAL NOTICE

TO: ALBERT GEORGE LAMP, whose place of residence is unknown.

You will hereby take notice that on the thirteenth day of March, 1969, Patricia Ann Lamp filed her petition for divorce in the Common Pleas Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, in Case No. 5385 said petition in substance charging Wilful Absence for one year, Extreme Cruelty and Gross Neglect of Duty and praying that the Plaintiff, Patricia Ann Lamp be divorced, given custody of the minor children, support, award of furniture, and for such other equitable relief as the Court may permit and that said cause will be for hearing on (4) weeks and one (1) day from the date of the first publication hereof.

George Steele, Attorney for Plaintiff Patricia Ann Lamp

SECOND STREET, CHESTER—$8,500, with a low, low down payment will buy you this 5 room home and bath, all floors carpeted, except kitchen and bath, that has vinyl floors. Kitchen, living room and dining room all newly paneled, storm doors and windows, large garage. Cool in the summer and warm in the winter. Just listen to this. Gas hot water heat, and gas hot water tank. Now listen good. A $14.00 per month budget.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL ROAD. Sure you have dreams, and we all do. Now if you are coming close to that retirement dream for you and mother, go to bed tonight have a good night's sleep, but dream a little about this, 4 acres, that lays beautiful. I mean you don't have to have a cane and crutch to get over it. No fill in cut or cleaning up to do. But here is what it does have. A nice size family orchard of semi dwarf fruit trees just now bearing good; 1000 black raspberry vines well heat, care of; 50 red raspberries, a real nice strawberry patch, well taken care of. A 4 room brick home with oil furnace, I can only think of one more thing to add to this dream. One should have a good beagle hound. Oh yes there is a double garage. Price $12,000. WILL TAKE GOOD HOUSE TRAILER IN AS DOWN PAYMENT.

WATERFORD PARK ROAD. This gracious older home that has been extremely well cared for, has 6 rooms and bath, with 10 acres of beautiful laying ground, 3 acres of which is in lawn and shrubbery. The rhododendron will be blooming soon. Lots of pine trees, roses and many others. Walls plastered and painted, some custom made drapes, considerable floor covering, kitchen and bath above average, water system consists of well, spring and cistern, electric hot water heater, and garage. Oil furnace. Oh yes, a riding lawn mower goes with the above, and maybe my wife Eva, will mow your grass for you this summer. PRICE $25,000.

REAR 236 INDIANA AVENUE, CHESTER — I just cannot understand why someone that is renting has not bought this real clean 5 room home and bath. Now just listen to what it has. A large kitchen with lots of cupboards, a cozy living room, a T.V. room that could be used for a bedroom if needed, two nice newly redecorated bedrooms, and bath on second floor, gas furnace, attached garage, T.V. room paneled. Now here is the finale, priced at $7,500 with a LOW, LOW LOW DOWN PAYMENT.

Junior Editors Quiz on
MIRRORS

QUESTION: How can mirrors reflect things so brightly?

ANSWER: Everything we look at, except for perfectly black areas, reflects some of the light which falls upon it. Objects which have a soft porous surface, like cloth, absorb much of the light. Hard-surfaced shiny objects reflect a lot of light to our eyes. If such objects are shiny enough, they will reflect a full picture of the scene whose light falls on them. If we are looking directly into them, this picture will include our own faces. In (1), Jane looks into a smooth white kitchen plate. The light from the window falls on her face and she can see a dim image of herself in the plate. Ancient peoples early discovered the fun of looking at themselves in shiny surfaces. In (2), an Egyptian princess uses a polished bronze hand mirror. But the mirrors our millions of modern princesses use are much better. (3). Back of the glass, which acts as a protective layer, is a brilliant coating called silvering, often made of tin and mercury. This gives a surface so highly reflective that we see almost perfect images of ourselves.

(Kin Spalthoff of Riverside, Conn., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Administration Places Surplus At $6 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration reportedly now expects a surplus approaching $6 billion in a fiscal 1970 budget showing the biggest cutbacks in welfare and defense.

The projected surplus is the result of what one administration source called "a second trip through the wringer" for the record $195.3 billion budget President Nixon inherited from Lyndon Johnson.

Nixon ordered an agency-by-agency review of the Johnson budget, which had forecast a $3.5 billion surplus, as soon as he took office last January. But when it was completed it showed a net increase in outlays — instead of a decrease — so Nixon sent it back for another look.

Announcement of the $5.5 billion to $6 billion surplus today is expected to be followed up with a bundle of revised agency-by-agency requests next week when Congress reconvenes after its Easter recess.

The bulk of the more than $2 billion in spending cuts came out of the budgets for Defense and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird already has disclosed a $1.1-billion cutback. The Pentagon is seeking $900 million less than was in the Johnson budget for the antiballistic missile system.

A cutback of $1.1 billion reportedly is in store for HEW. This would be about 2 per cent of the department's overall budget, but actually would amount to a much larger proportionate share.

About $18 billion of the HEW budget is for uncontrollable expenses such as Social Security, Medicare and public assistance which are safe from budget cutters.

Besides defense and welfare, fairly severe cuts have been rumored for space, agriculture and highways.

An increase in the 1970 surplus would be balanced off, in part, by a shrinkage in the surplus for fiscal 1969 which ends June 30.

The Johnson budget estimated a $2.4 billion surplus which Nixon people now put at closer to $1 billion.

Democrats Set Rally

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady says a nationally known party leader, as yet unannounced, will be the featured speaker when Ohio Democrats hold a fund-raising dinner here May 24.

GOP Event Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Republican Chairman John S. Andrews and his wife will host a reception for Ohio GOP women attending the four-day 17th annual Republican Women's Conference opening Monday in Washington.

County Spelling Champ

Rogers Girl, 13, Wins Bee

ON TO CANTON! Cecelia Wolford of Rogers, 1969 Columbiana County spelling champ, leads a parade of county rural school system girls headed for the regional bee at Canton April 25. They include, left to right, Carol Booth of Lisbon RD 3, Darla McCreary of New Waterford, Sarah Coppock of Winona and Ellen Mountz of Hanover RD.

A 13-year-old Beaver Local seventh grader from Rogers will lead four other girls from the Columbiana County rural school system to the regional spelling bee at Canton April 25.

Cecelia Wolford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wolford of Rogers, topped Carol Booth, also a Beaver Local seventh grader, to win the county spelling-down Friday night at Lisbon.

Carol, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Booth of Lisbon RD 3 and Cecelia struggled with difficult multisyllable words for ten minutes before the new champion was chosen.

Others who made the final standdown and will present the county at Canton are Darla McCreary, 14, of New Waterford, Sarah Coppock of Winona and Ellen Mountz of near Hanover.

Darla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCreary, an eighth grader at Fairfield School.

Sarah, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coppock of Winona, is in eighth grade at United.

Ellen, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Mountz of Hanover RD 1, is also a United eighth grader.

It marked the first time in the history of the county spelling bee that the five qualifiers for the regional finals came from a single school system.

The five girls won out over 27 other spelling representatives from Salem, Columbiana, Leetonia, Lisbon, East Liverpool, Wellsville and the county parochial schools as they struggled through one of the toughest word lists in memory of observers.

Cecelia and Carol, classmates, staged an "Alphonse and Gaston" act as neither could apply the clincher although both had several opportunities after the field was narrowed to two. Cecelia finally spelled "balustrade" after Carol had missed it and then handled "hieroglyphics" correctly.

Arab, Israeli Forces Duel In Latest Mideast Flareup

By The Associated Press
Arab and Israeli forces clashed on the Jordanian front today as Egypt denied there was anything new in King Hussein's six-point Middle East peace plan.

An Israeli army spokesman said Israeli troops clashed with Jordanian regulars south of the Sea of Galilee after an Arab guerrilla attack on an Israeli patrol. He said the guerrillas opened fire on the patrol with bazookas at 6:30 a.m., and the Jordanian regulars joined in with a mortar barrage lasting 2½ hours.

The spokesman said the Israeli forces returned the fire without suffering any casualties.

A Jordanian spokesman said the Israelis began shelling South Mennah village at 5:45 a.m., stopped briefly and then resumed again at 6:45 a.m. He said the Jordanians suffered no losses, but claimed five Israeli soldiers were hit by Jordanian gunfire.

Today's clash followed artillery duels Friday across the Jordan River and the Suez Canal.

A communique from Cairo said the Israelis started firing across the Suez Canal in the fourth battle there in eight days, and a Jordanian communique said the Israelis shelled Jordanian troops from positions on the occupied West Bank.

Both communique said the Arabs suffered no casualties. There was no immediate word on the two battles from Israeli headquarters in Tel Aviv.

The semi-official Egyptian newspaper Al Ahram, which usually reflects the thinking of President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said today the peace plan outlined Thursday by King Hussein of Jordan did not represent a shift from the previous Arab position on terms for a settlement.

Washington had viewed as a new development Hussein's statement Thursday that one

5 Areas Hard Hit

Flood Damage In Millions; More States Await Blows

By The Associated Press
Flooding caused mounting damage—over $3 million in one area—and extreme hardship today for persons in five states.

Meanwhile, communities along the Mississippi River braced for the larger water runoff expected from tributaries currently swamping her hinterlands and forcing over 3,000 persons from their homes.

The U.S. Geological Survey said some rivers are carrying 2½ times more water than during the worst floods ever recorded in the Midwest.

States hit hardest by the heavy snow melt near the Canadian border are Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and, to a lesser degree, Wisconsin.

Rampaging waters from the Souris River in north-central North Dakota crashed through earthen dikes at Minot and sent 2,000 persons fleeing from their homes. County officials estimated damage for the town of 33,000 at $3.25 million.

point in his peace plan would give Israel full navigation rights in the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. The Jordanian monarch had said he was speaking for President Gamal Abdel Nasser as well as himself.

Al Ahram said any settlement with Israel according to the provisions of the U.N. Security Council resolution of November 1967 must be divided into two parts.

"Firstly liquidation of the consequences of the June 1967 battles through withdrawal and implementation of the first part.

The Red River, swirling down from Canada on the North Dakota and Minnesota border, forced evacuation of 25 families at Enderlin, N. D. At Wahpeton, N.D., the river was six feet above flood stage with a crest expected later today one foot high set in 1897.

At Fargo, N.D., the Red River was 11 feet above flood stage and at Jamestown, N.D., the rising James River pushed through a dike and forced the evacuation of 75 persons from a housing development for elderly persons.

The Big Sioux River crested and began receding Friday at Sioux Falls, S.D., Sioux City, Iowa and, to a lesser degree, Wisconsin.

Pan American Day

WASHINGTON — President Nixon has proclaimed Monday as Pan American Day, commemorating the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Inter-American System.

For Second Night Cong Gunners Blast Allied Bases, Towns

Casualties In Attacks Seen Light

Rubble Searched For Bodies After Heavy Shellings

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong gunners shelled 30 allied bases and towns in a second night of intensified rocket and mortar attacks, military spokesmen reported today. Casualties and damage were termed light.

Vinh Long City, a provincial capital in the Mekong Delta 65 miles southwest of Saigon, was shelled a second time in 17 hours. Spokesmen said 34 mortar shells exploded near the city police station, killing three civilians and wounding three others. More than 100 mortar rounds fell on the city early Friday, killing 17 persons and wounding 105.

Tay Ninh City, another provincial capital hard hit in Friday's attacks, was untouched, but enemy gunners shelled an American base camp three miles west of the city. Spokesmen said one American soldier was killed and six were wounded.

In Tay Ninh, workers probed through rubble searching for bodies. Eighty persons were missing by official count, but unofficial estimates ranged as high as 150. Some reports said 35 bodies had been recovered.

"We don't know how many are buried in there," said one American officer.

Twelve persons were known dead, and 100 were wounded when enemy rockets slammed into two ammunition dumps, blowing up more than 200 tons of artillery and small arms ammunition. The explosions destroyed about 100 buildings.

Associated Press Correspondent George McArthur reported from Tay Ninh that occasional rounds were still going off as workers began their search through the ruins.

An American adviser said the list of missing persons may be reduced when new counts are taken of survivors in the area. Early counts, he said, were

Fever Brings Concern For Paul McCraw

Nine-year-old Paul McCraw, given the kidney of a girl in a transplant operation April 3 at Children's Hospital at Pittsburgh, is reported with a high fever today, apparently as a result of blood infection.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCraw of Mulberry St., Paul's fever possibly results from the many drugs he has been given to keep his body from rejecting the new kidney.

His mother said the child is suffering quite a bit of pain, but

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — It was just a beatup looking 1957 Plymouth, and police suspected it was sporting stolen tires — but what it really had was:

Rocket launchers, a mechanism to squirt enough oil out the back end to cover a four-lane highway for 50 feet, another gadget to set up a smokescreen, a doo-dad to put on a psychedelic light show and a secret compartment in the steering wheel hub.

The owner, Ronald L. Crona, was charged with larceny in connection with what police said were stolen tires.

Crona explained he had planned on making a "007"-type movie.

Man Hospitalized

House Struck As Cars Hit

SPLINTER SCENE. The wrecked porch of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaw of Lisbon St., hit by an auto Friday night, is viewed, left to right, by their daughter, Kelly Shaw and Lane Sue Knight and Theresa Griffin, neighbors, and Janet Griffin of Lisbon St. who was baby-sitting for the family.

An East Liverpool man was hospitalized and another was treated and released following an accident involving three cars — one parked — which also resulted in damage to a house at 862 Lisbon St. Friday night.

Robert William Montgomery, 18, of 226 Haywood St. suffered a possible back injury and was listed as "fair" this morning at City Hospital.

Charles Papendry, 63, of 1058

Pennsylvania Ave. was treated for muscle strain and injuries of the chest and leg and released.

Police said Papendry was traveling south on Lisbon St. when he attempted to turn left onto W. 9th St. and collided with the car operated by Montgomery.

Montgomery's vehicle then traveled across the roadway, striking the home occupied by Fred A. Shaw and a parked auto belonging to Joseph J. Clanni of 742 Lincoln Ave.

The house is owned by Kenneth Browning of 1281 Dodge St.

Papendry was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way. The right side of his 1966 sedan and both sides and the front of Montgomery's 1955 auto were damaged.

The accident occurred at 10:42 p.m.

59 Centers To Be Closed

Supporters Of Job Corps Set Drive Against Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — House backers of the Job Corps hope to force a vote by the end of May on President Nixon's plan to cutback the key poverty program.

Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz made official Friday what had been widely reported for several days: 59 of the 113 centers will be closed by July 1.

Plans to open 30 new daytime only training centers in and near central city areas didn't pacify ardent Job Corps supporters.

Rep. Carl D. Perkins, chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, said the administration plan "will deny hope and opportunity to thousands of underprivileged boys and girls."

"I hope the Congress will not be a party to it," the Kentucky Democrat added.

The House Education and Labor Committee plans to resume hearings on the whole poverty program April 21 and similar hearings are planned in the Senate.

Perkins said his committee will give the House a chance to vote on the issue soon, perhaps before the end of May.

President Nixon has transferred the Job Corps to the Labor Department from the Office of Economic Opportunity effective July 1. Perkins also hopes to stop the transfer.

In the midst of the blossoming congressional furor over the cuts, there was a report that President Nixon had tapped a popular young Republican congressman from Illinois, Donald Rumsfeld, to head OEO.

The Washington Post said intensive efforts were being made to get the 36-year-old former Navy pilot to take the post so the administration will have a

Weekend's Weather Due To Be Pleasant

A pleasant weekend is in prospect for residents of the tri-state area.

The forecast calls for mostly clear tonight and not quite so cool, with the low in the middle 30s.

Sunday is to be fair with seasonable temperature. The high will be around 60.

Some rain may fall Monday, the weatherman says.

NATO Aides Bypass Reds' Parley Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Atlantic Treaty Organization, set up two decades ago as a bulwark against Communism, is embarking today on a path that could make it an instrument of lasting peace.

The NATO anniversary wound up a two-day anniversary conference Friday proposing to explore with the Soviets and their allies the possibilities for settling specific differences.

But they suggested a cautious, step-by-step approach and a general Communist plan for a summit conference on European security.

The 15 NATO ministers had spent considerable time discussing an invitation issued by the Warsaw pact nations March 17 to a joint European security conference.

Their final communique replied indirectly, by bypassing it. "The allies propose, while remaining in close consultation, to explore with the Soviet Union and the other countries of Eastern Europe which concrete issues best lend themselves to fruitful negotiation and an early resolution."

The NATO ministers instructed their ambassadors at NATO's Brussels headquarters to draw up a list that might be negotiated with the Reds.

In Sit-In Case

Harvard Faculty Drops Charges

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — By an almost unanimous faculty vote, Harvard has decided to drop criminal trespass charges against nearly 200 students ejected from an administration building sit-in by club-swinging police at dawn Thursday.

"We deplore the forcible occupation of University Hall" by the students and "we deplore the entry of police into any university," the faculty said in a resolution adopted by vote of 396 to 13.

The faculty acted as thousands of students boycotted classes to protest the summoning of police. Moderate groups as well as those led by Students for a Democratic Society, which had led the sit-in Wednesday, took part in the planned three-day strike.

Estimates of the number of boycotting students varied from 3,000 to 8,000 out of a student body of 15,000. There were no official figures.

President Nathan M. Pusey, head of Harvard for the last 16 years, issued a statement in which he said the decision to call in the police was reached after it was learned the invaders had broken down the door of a confidential records room, and "had begun to rifle and duplicate the faculty personnel files and financial records."

Since the faculty is the ultimate authority at Harvard in matters of discipline, Franklin L. Ford, dean of faculty, said university charges against the students would be dropped.

He added that about a half-dozen demonstrators were charged by police with assault and disturbing the peace, and the faculty vote has no bearing on these charges.

In the melee Thursday which followed the deployment of 400 police to clear University Hall, 39 students suffered minor injuries and nearly 200 were hauled away under arrest.

The faculty resolution said primary blame for the episode must rest with those who illegally took possession of the administration building.

Dean Ford said that some of the stolen files were duplicated in an issue of "Old Mole," a self-styled "radical bi-weekly."

somewhat confused and failed to include some people who were at home and did not attend muster.

In Saigon, national police said terrorists set off a bomb at a transformer station in Cholon, the Chinese section of the capital. No casualties were reported.

Police sources said 31 Viet Cong had been arrested, some of them said to be Saigon University students. The sources said the leader of a Communist cell was picked up and named other cell members who reportedly had organized a suicide squad to carry out terrorist attacks. The sources said three K54 Chinese pistols and a quantity of plastic explosives were found.

Scattered ground fighting was reported throughout South Vietnam today. U.S. and government forces reported killing 98 enemy soldiers in a half dozen skirmishes. Four Americans were reported killed and 23 were wounded.

To Be Hit By Closings

By The Associated Press
Two Ohio Job Corps centers are among 59 around the country which will be closed by the Nixon administration.

The centers, both designated conservation camps, are at Camp Perry near Port Clinton in Ottawa County and at Vesuvius near Ironton in Lawrence County.

While announcing plans to close down the centers, the administration said it also is considering the establishment of new urban residential manpower centers in 28 cities, including Cleveland and Cincinnati.

Southwest Hit By Rain, Hail

By The Associated Press
Thunderstorms cracked over the Southwest today and triggered scattered outbursts of wind, heavy rain and hail northward into the Central Rockies.

A flash flood advisory was in effect for late Friday for Austin, Tex., and the nearby hill country after heavy downpours west of the city.

Nearly 1 1/2 inches of rain soaked Laredo and San Angelo, Tex., during the night.

Hailstones the size of baseballs rattled the Pecos area of West Texas. Reports of hail were numerous elsewhere over the storm belt.

The storm activity ranged eastward to Louisiana and north through Colorado before dawn. Clear skies were widespread outside the storm region, although cloudiness was quite general along the Pacific Coast.

Temperatures slid into the 20s from the Great Lakes region to interior New England. Houlton, Maine, registered 24 before daybreak.

Killed In Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Pfc. Raymond A. Gray of Cleveland and Marine Pfc. Richard L. Porter of Stow, Ohio, have been killed in action in Vietnam, the Defense Department said Friday.

The U.S. Cavalry was abolished as an arm of the military service in 1946, the remaining units being absorbed by the armored forces.

'Responsibility' Stressed As Key Part Of Freedom

"A good Lion serves God, his country and his fellow man," Ernest Williams of Alliance, district governor of Lions International, told the East Liverpool club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Williams referred to the Constitution of the United States as a paper which influenced more people than any other. He said "after those great men wrote this paper, they reread it, then added the Bill of Rights—the words which give us our freedoms."

He told the members to read between the lines. "The right to vote is ours, but this also gives us the responsibility to vote," he said.

"The right to freedom of speech is ours," he exclaimed, but this also carries with it a responsibility.

"Governments fail because people have failed to live up to their responsibilities."

He asked each member to examine himself and ask: "Am I a dynamic person in the service of others?"

Richard Walker was program chairman.

Oberlin College Officials Bow To Some Demands

OVERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Oberlin College officials agreed to some demands of protesting students early today in a marathon bargaining session that began Friday afternoon.

But officials, faculty members and student leaders remained in the school's administration building after the concessions were announced about 2 a. m. as did some 200 students threatening to take over the building if their demands were not met.

President Robert K. Carr, a participant in the session which started about 5 p. m. Friday, agreed not to use his power to exercise the final word in camp disciplinary matters.

It was agreed that such matters would be handled at least temporarily by a student-faculty board already in existence, but that the case of a suspended student protest group leader would be submitted to a general faculty meeting.

Students, who Friday called for a two-day strike next week in their dispute over the workings of Oberlin's judicial setup, said they wanted:

- Carr's resignation or removal.
- Suspension of a bylaw giving Carr final word in campus disciplinary matters.
- Assurance that a student-faculty board would be given sole jurisdiction over discipline cases until a new campus judicial code was approved.
- Reinstatement of Jeremy Pikser, a leader of Oberlin's Students for a Democratic Society chapter, who was suspended after demonstrating March 28 against Peace Corps recruiters on campus.

Pikser was one of three students suspended in the same demonstration. He was the only one who refused to agree to cause no further disruptions on campus. The other two were reinstated.

Some 25 to 50 students had occupied Oberlin's administration building overnight Wednesday, demanding Pikser's reinstatement and charging that he was denied "due process" by school officials.

Carr and a faculty council rejected the demands.

Oberlin's student senate then voted Thursday to call for Carr's resignation, suspend all campus social rules and end their working relationship with faculty members.

Other students moved into Oberlin's student union, saying they planned to convert it into a communal living center. Their project continued through Friday without a public challenge by school officials, who said services in the union were not being disrupted.

Friday, after Oberlin officials failed to give in to student demands, the student senate called for a student-faculty boycott to start Monday and continue through Tuesday.

Ohio State Picks Local Senior As 'Honor Scholar'

Miss Cindy Raye Waggoner, daughter of Mrs. Sara Waggoner and a senior at East Liverpool High School, has been chosen as a freshman honor scholar at Ohio State University.

She will receive special housing, curriculum, financial and library privileges.

Cindy is a member of the National Honor Society, Hi-Tri and Latin Club, as well as being a homeroom officer.

She has been named a commended honor student in the National Merit Scholarship Test and will be in "Who's Who of graduating seniors."

Cindy plans to enter the College of Engineering at Ohio State University next fall.

An Appropriate Action

Kent State University's response to a new campus outburst by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was both swift and firm.

Officials have suspended seven students and the charter of the Kent SDS chapter. Warrants have been issued for five students charged with assault and battery in the aftermath of Tuesday's clash with campus police during a SDS protest demonstration.

THE CRACKDOWN on SDS had to come. Chapter members have gone far beyond the limits of legitimate dissent and have repeatedly infringed upon the rights of others with their disruptive tactics in behalf of dictatorial demands.

Kent officials have been more than lenient in dealing with protesting students. Protestors have been given ample opportunity to voice their dissent loud and clear without interrupting the educational process at the university.

A Kent vice president offered to meet with two or three of the protestors to hear their complaints but the students refused the invitation.

The university administration naturally is sensitive to student feelings and protective of the right of dissent but the line has to be drawn when students blatantly disregard the rights of everyone else.

Kent's action is positive in that it makes clear that the institution supports definite standards while remaining open minded about student concerns.

University action was directed at a single organization that had clearly stepped out of bounds with its protest.

THE RIGHT to disagree is guaranteed by the Constitution as it should be. Charges of repression against Kent by SDS supporters are ill-founded. An institution of higher learning has the right and the responsibility to maintain order on campus and keep the education process operating.

Any institution — or nation for that matter — that functions at the level of its lowest common denominator is in dire trouble.

Kent took appropriate action that leaves little room for criticism.

Cemetery Sneaks

It is reassuring to learn not all the ancient arts are succumbing to the passage of time or being replaced by newer enchantments.

The Review has not had a local story about thefts from a poor box in a church for some years. But of course, churches and their ministers are still being victimized by occasional burglars, bandits and vandals.

Grave robbing continues, however. Not the old Egyptian "dig up and dismantle" approach, just the casual "We need more lilies, George."

Riverview Cemetery officials reported potted plants were taken from graves over the Easter period, a not uncommon occurrence at cemeteries in the area on Memorial Day and Easter holidays. It requires a special callousness to be able to convert flowers from intended use of honoring the memory of a loved one to brightening a front window or the corner of a back yard.

Stolen blooms rarely wilt, but they must some day bring a sense of shame — suitably, perhaps, when the next generation of cemetery sneak thieves steals from the graves of this generation.

Letters To The Editor

Last year as a junior at East Liverpool High School I was proud of the fact that next year I would be a member of the new high school. It wasn't very far into September 1969 that my opinion changed.

Why? I cannot answer that question completely, but I would like to try. It seems as long as I can remember there have been troubles in our school system. Everything came to a head this year. It was unfortunate it happened in the way it did, but pressure can build only so long.

Who really suffers for this? Not Mr. McNea or Mr. McConnell. Yes, they were subject to unjust public ridicule. Neither the people nor I still really know what happened. Yes, they were both wrong to some extent, but this is due to our permissive administration. This could have been stopped a long time ago, but it was allowed to grow out of hand.

This same problem of permissiveness has found its way into the student body. The respect which was once there for the principal is not there. Why? Because he means nothing to the students. This cannot be fully blamed upon him. With the new school, he has had a lot to deal with.

I think we would be better off if the iron hand were made known to the students of E.L.H.S. again. The rules and regulations are there, but they need to be enforced to do any good.

I don't want the people to get the wrong idea. There are major problems in our system, but this is no reason not to back the two levy renewals May 6. Again, the only people who will be hurt will be the students. Not supporting the levy will only make things worse.

I love our high school. We have the best teachers and beautiful buildings. The problem left is a moral one. If the town gets behind our schools and students, nothing will stop us.

Did you ever consider that all the problems are not up on the hill, but maybe some of them are down in the valley with you? Let's bring back the "Age of Reason" in East Liverpool. Good luck, underclassmen!

Cancellation of the Smothers Brothers TV show is a prime example of our society's methods in dealing with situations it doesn't understand. Please note that I didn't say dislike, but said doesn't understand. Any thing that society doesn't understand brings into the following procedures:

First there is the Big Brother act. "Now, now, its not all that bad, it could be worse so, just don't rock the boat. It will change for the better, just wait and see."

Second act is the Bribe. You are showered with praise and attention, offered gifts, patted on the back, told how great life is, and asked to quit rocking the boat. But when the first two procedures fail, the next is panic. Society hit the Smothers brothers with the panic button. It's the same button that has been pushed on the black man, on students, on union organizers. It's the same button which keeps us at war with our neighbors.

Is faith in our religion so weak that we must censor religious jokes to keep religion from falling apart? Is belief in our government so little that we are afraid a joke will topple it? Is trust in our fellow man so nil, that we are afraid jokes about each other will destroy us? If this be so, may God have mercy on us.

Action Urged

Surely the controversy involving our school system is the present major problem facing the school board and administration and due most serious and early consideration. In the May primary, East Liverpool will again vote for or against the school levies; school itself will end a few weeks later. Considering the short Kindergarten was so named by its founder, Friedrich Froebel (1782-1852) to express his idea of the school as a garden in which children are comparable to unfolding plants. Froebel began his first kindergarten in 1837, making use of plays, games and songs to illustrate his belief that a child should learn by doing rather than by merely reading or listening.

VICTOR RIESEL

Red Aid For Black Rebels

WASHINGTON — June days are warm in Tanzania's grim little waterfront city of Dar es Salaam. But you can drive away from the piratical scow captains, up along Roosevelt Road, and in Oyster Bay swim in the Indian Ocean.

However, one day last mid-June, four visitors to "Dar" and Zanzibar across the channel had no time for play. They were — and are — American revolutionists whose leaders, in the presence of Mao Tse-tung, took the podium at a Peking rally and pledged that they would escalate the slogan, "Burn, Baby, Burn," to "Kill, Baby, Kill." Violence, he shouted, is the only way of communication.

Those words were trumpeted by Robert Williams, president of the Republic of New Africa, which flashed into the news two weeks ago when its national conference of 300 "citizens" in Detroit wound up in a shoot-out during which a 22-year-old policeman was killed.

One of the four avowed revolutionists in "Dar" last June was Robert Williams. He was on a mission for the "American desk" in Peking. His assignment was to meet with the Republic of New Africa's active home-front leaders: chief Vice President Milton Henry, Minister of Information Richard Henry, and Williams' former associate in Monroe, N.C., May Mallory. Bob Williams is a fugitive from America, running from a kidnapping charge.

HE FLEW IN from Peking with promises and money. They met in "Dar" because the government is heavily influenced by a Maoist power bloc operating out of spicy Zanzibar.

Williams told his allies, who had spent considerable money flying from Detroit and New York, that he could promise them considerable industrial equipment. Chairman Mao himself had pledged this. Furthermore, he could promise military advisers to help train the Republic of New Africa's own force, the Black Legion, which wears green military uniforms, leopard-head shoulder decorations, black berets and black boots.

It would, of course, be difficult to use this equipment — machinery, tools, farm implements and Chinese military officers in the U.S. — until the Republic of New Africa actually holds political power in five Southern states. But the friendly Tanzanian government was ready to grant the RNA sufficient land on which to build a commune until the new government could shift operations to America.

This was the message the Henrys and Mae Mallory brought back with them to the RNA's home city, Detroit.

This was no musical comedy script. Nor a new Broadway production on the new aspirations. The four revolutionists are quite serious, quite experienced and quite intelligent. The RNA's acting president, Milton Henry, is a Yale

Law School honors graduate, an author and a former member of the Detroit City Council.

HIS ORGANIZATION is interlocked with leaders of the Revolutionary Action Movement, two of whom were convicted of conspiracy to murder Urban League President Whitney Young Jr. and NAACP President Roy Wilkins. One of the convicted conspirators, Herman Ferguson, is RNA's Director of Education. "The Republic" also is linked with firebrands of the Progressive Labor Party. There are ties with veteran Communist organizers and other revolutionary "workers" parties.

One of these links is Queen Mother (Audley) Moore, who operates a New York camp called Mount Addis Ababa, just the thing for guerrilla training. Mother Moore, who with Herman Ferguson (a participant in the Detroit conference) has been trying to smash the huge New York United Federation of Teachers, is the RNA's Minister of Health and Welfare.

Mr. Henry has a full, rather bizarre cabinet, which includes H. Rap Brown as Minister of Defense. His brother, Richard Henry, is Minister of Information.

THE FOUR REVOLUTIONISTS were dispatched to Dar es Salaam by an RNA legislative assembly held in Chicago last May 30 and June 1. At that conference, 150 "citizens" talked of buying land in Mississippi for an airstrip. They discussed plans to open consulates in America's big cities; seeking diplomatic ties with "friendly" nations; seek United Nations recognition; start their own "government printing office"; impose a three per cent personal income tax on each "citizen" to purchase land in the South; set up black unions to compete with the traditional labor movement and attempt to take over burgeoning black unions in Chicago and Detroit; and launch the Black Legion as its standing army.

Also, under strict security, the gathering was handed a special document on improvising explosives — the making of napalm, thermite incendiaries, Molotov cocktails and other homemade grenades. The document suggested targets — banks, police stations, courthouses, post offices, and communication systems.

The Henry brothers are never ones to smother any angle. They had a "peaceful" approach too. Their strategy also calls for shipping a million black people into Mississippi. Then to work through the ballot box to take over all sheriff posts. Then to seize the government. Then to move over to Alabama. As a starter, they announced they had purchased 100 acres in Mississippi to run as a collective farm.

Judging from the Detroit shoot-out, they were serious about the arms, the standing army and their new nation. Apparently Cuba, Tanzania and Communist China are ready to recognize it. The first diplomatic contact was made that hot day in "Dar" last June.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Bad Economic Understanding

WASHINGTON — Maybe something constructive will result from the unprecedented conference at White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., on April 14, which has been called by the AFL-CIO. Invitations to participate were accepted by the secretary of treasury, the secretary of labor, the director of the budget, the chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers and the white house counselor on economic projects.

For more than 20 years, businessmen have met semiannually at Hot Springs, Va., with cabinet members, and the group was originally known as the Business Advisory Council. But in 1961 a difference of opinion arose as to whether the meeting was being called by the department of Commerce or by the businessmen.

THE WORD "ADVISORY" in the title was dropped, and the whole nature of the conference was changed so it would thereafter be a voluntary affair conducted by businessmen, with government officials as invited guests. This is exactly the parallel arrangement now adopted by the AFL-CIO.

Frank interchanges are possible because these meetings are not open to the press. Afterwards, excerpts or briefings are furnished to the newsmen by the participants at will.

What is the underlying purpose of the new meeting so far as labor is concerned? One labor leader says they hope to persuade the administration not to use "unemployment as a weapon against inflation." There are many economic issues at stake. Will the government, by its high-interest policy or its tax policies, discourage business expansion? Labor is deeply concerned over what the trend of administration policies on economic matters will be.

There is an even greater significance to the conference than merely to get an explanation of governmental attitudes or future recommendations. Labor hopes to present its viewpoint, just as business does at similar meetings.

The AFL-CIO, the parent labor organization, has practically no authority over the operations of its components — the big national or international unions which negotiate their own contracts and do so in many cases on virtually an industrywide basis. Again and again, a president or his secretary of labor has endeavored to persuade labor to exercise self-restraint and not push wages up too fast, because this necessarily results in price increases. As the cost of living then rises, labor unions feel the need to demand even higher wage scales.

The government itself has unwittingly played a part in causing unemployment by raising the minimum wage for workers throughout the country. Nearly all of the workers affected are not members of unions, as they do a variety of jobs. But the labor leaders know that if the minimum-wage rate goes up, other wage scales promptly have to be advanced to keep in line with the basic compensation. Unfortunately, as minimum-wage rates rise, many employees who had part-time work find themselves forced out of their jobs because it is not much more expensive for an employer to get full-time workers at the new scales or else to try to eliminate the part-time operations altogether.

There are many problems of this kind which would seem to require intimate consultations between government and labor leaders. Up to now, while the AFL-CIO has maintained an economic staff, the government has had little opportunity to reach the leadership of the labor unions — often motivated by internal politics — and tell them what is meant by "voluntary restraint."

THUS, LABOR would indeed be getting higher wage payments for its members if prosperity were sustained on a sound economic basis.

An exchange of ideas at a meeting such as has been brought about by the AFL-CIO could be fruitful. It could lay the basis for what has long been sought — a sense of responsibility on the part of labor-union leadership for the welfare not merely of its members but of the very businesses which must earn a fair return on the risk capital invested.

Maybe some day there will be still another type of conference — also without reporters present — as businessmen and labor leaders exchange views and begin to recognize the realities of a system of free enterprise.

MOMENT OF MEDITATION
RELIGION IS FOR ALL

Religion was designed by God to meet the needs of all people. Religion is the process by which man makes his life acceptable to God. It is a fact that is clearly taught in the Bible, that all people who are old enough to know the difference in right and wrong in religious matters, are guilty of committing sins in God's sight. Paul stated in Rom. 3:23 that all of us sin and fall short of the glory of God. In James the first chapter and verses thirteen through fifteen, James teaches clearly that we commit sin when we are drawn away of our own lust and enticed. From these verses we conclude that all of us are guilty of committing sins in the sight of God.
Since religion is the process of making ourselves right in God's sight, all of us should be greatly concerned about religion. However, many times when we talk to people about religion and our responsibility to God, they reply by saying that they are just not interested. They tell us that they do not object to other people being religious, but they just do not want to be bothered. Many times a Father will express a concern that his wife and children have the full opportunity to attend services of the church. The same man who will express this concern that his family attend the worship, may make it clear that he himself is just not interested. He seems to think that he just does not need religion. By his he is expressing the thought that religion is fine for women and children but that it just isn't for men.
Friends, religion is needed by everyone. The rich or the poor, the young or the old, the sick or the well, all are in need of making their lives right in the sight of God. Jesus came into the world to seek and to save the lost. Lk. 19:10. He shed his precious blood so that we might have the hope of redemption from our sins. Mt. 26:28. Jesus sent his disciples into the world with this message of salvation. Read this in Mt. 28:19. "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." His disciples did carry this message to the world. As they went about teaching people about Christ and our hope of salvation, they encouraged people to believe in Christ and to be baptized so that they could have the forgiveness of their sins. This message was for all people. In fact, it is still for all people. Since we are all guilty of sin against God, all of us stand in the need of believing in Christ and being baptized for the remission of our sins. Acts 2:38. Have you obeyed these instructions of the Lord? Why not attend services tomorrow?

James Hillmyer of 818 St. George St., an employee at Patterson Industries, sustained a laceration of the right index finger on a piece of metal and was treated and released.

Terry Medley of 1221 Anderson Ave., Wellsville, an employee of the H. K. Porter Co., was treated for a contusion of the right hand, when caught between two car doors at work.

George Dye, 690 Spring Grove, puncture wound on palm of right hand on a bolt from motor; Tracy Lane, daughter of Robert Lane of 1730 Etruria St., fracture of right hand in a fall on the way home from school; Michael Basinger, son of Mrs. Viola Basinger, 1004 Church St., laceration of finger on right hand on glass.

Tommy Tucker, son of Keith Tucker RD 1, puncture wound of right hand on a rusty nail; Jeanette Koontz, 675 Lincoln Ave., fracture of rib in a fall at home; Don Wilson, son of Charles Wilson of Hammondsville RD 1, contusion of right eye when hit with a rock; Deborah Byers, daughters of Mrs. Delores Byers of 740 Garner Ave., burns on right foot, from spilled hot water.

Fiery Crash Hurts 2 Men

NEW CUMBERLAND — Two persons were injured in a fiery crash at the south end of town today at 12:10 a.m.

Police Chief William Webster, who was on the scene with the New Cumberland volunteer fire department, said an auto driven by Robert V. Mayhew, 19, of 100 Commerce St., New Cumberland, was traveling south on Route 2 when it hit an embankment, crossed the road and went over a 10-foot drop and burst into flames.

A witness said Mayhew was thrown from the vehicle, and a passenger Donald R. Jones, 22, of 409 S. Chestnut St., New Cumberland, escaped from the burning vehicle.

Both were taken to the Weirton General Hospital where Mayhew was treated for lacerations of the body and Jones was admitted for treatment of chest injuries. He is listed in "fair" condition.

Firemen extinguished the blaze. Webster said Mayhew will be cited for reckless driving.

Club Will Elect At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — Members of the Women's Civic Club will elect officers at the May 8 meeting, which will feature a dinner at a restaurant in Canton.

The club met this week at the home of Mrs. Willard Hillmyer, with 15 present. Members will help solicit funds for the cancer drive this month.

The program included yoga exercises led by Mrs. Dominic Fabatino.

The hostess served lunch, assisted by Mrs. Earl Rogers and Mrs. Clifford McKam. The table was covered with a pink cloth, centered with fresh fruit and flanked with white tapers in silver holders.

Four Fires Are Set At Toledo U. Building

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Presidents of 17 of Kent State University's 22 fraternities Friday gave school officials a petition supporting their handling of student protests on campus earlier this week.

Six persons were arrested and later banned from campus by scuffled with police Tuesday while trying to force their way into Kent's administration building to present demands.

Kent officials also suspended the charter of the campus chapter of Students for a Democratic Society, which organized the demonstration.

Lisbon Police Jail 2 Drivers For Hearings

LISBON — Police charged two motorists with driving while under the influence of alcohol early today and placed them in jail in default of $300 bond. Scheduled for hearings Tuesday in Mayor's Court are James F. Dillon of Salem, cited at 1:28 a.m., and Walter Moss, 34, of Randolph, arrested at 4:20 a.m.

AMAZED...

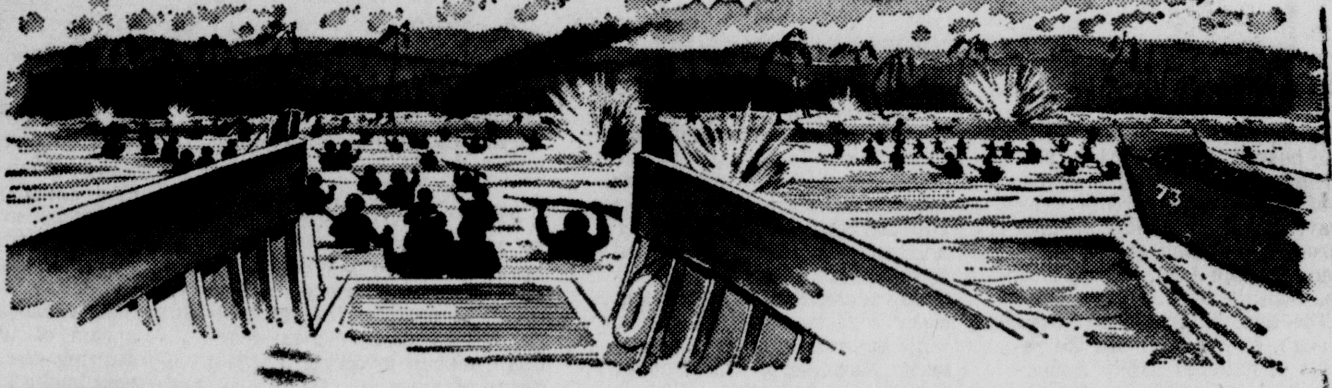

I tell a few war stories—just like the rest. The censorship of good taste and modesty makes my experiences pretty drab. But Jerry thrills to them. He's proud of his Dad's Purple Heart!

My son would be amazed if I were to tell him the stories we never tell, our thoughts as we hit the beach... what it was like in those jungles... what war does to its dead... and its living.

And in other ways Jerry would be amazed for he doesn't know me as a man who prays often. He can't realize the depth of my Faith. He has never met the brave chaplain who brought me in when I was hit.

I'll never tell Jerry all of it. I don't think God wants me to!

I pray that Jerry's may be a different world. I want him to learn day by day, step by step, what his religion will mean to him! That's why we're a church-going family!

Look Out For Traffic 'Hot Spots'

By ROBERT POPP

If you're driving on a main thoroughfare in East End or West End and see a young motorist approaching from a side street or from the rear, it's time to begin evasive action. Because the chances are strong that you may be involved in a collision.

That's a pattern indicated in the 87 traffic accidents investigated by East Liverpool police during March.

One month's accident reports do not offer a sufficient sample, of course, to put a finger on a couple of sites or one age group as major factors in the crashes. But the pattern is strong enough to indicate some significant clues, at least.

THE REPORTS show that the

your wife has been telling you for years is true — not many women are involved in accidents.

The 87 collisions in March involved 112 drivers — 89 males and 23 females. Forty-three of the drivers were in the 16-25 age bracket. Of that group, the drivers 18 and 19 were involved in 14 mishaps. So the young drivers were involved in roughly 33 per cent of the accidents.

TWENTY-SIX drivers between 26 and 34 were involved in crashes. The rest of the motorists were scattered pretty generally across the age spectrum from 36 to 85.

The statistics show a collision is more likely to occur at an intersection where there is three worst stretches for accidents are the four-lane W. 8th St. segment in West End; the busy E. and W. 3rd St. area in the downtown, which funnels traffic onto and off the Freeway, and the long thoroughfare through East End comprised of Pennsylvania Ave., Harvey Ave. and Elizabeth St.

The age pattern is strong enough, too, to bear out the reports of national safety authorities and insurance companies, which show that comparatively young motorists figure in an unusually high number of crashes.

And they prove, too, that what no traffic control or only a stop sign. The incidence is lower at corners where traffic lights are in service.

But sometimes traffic lights are responsible indirectly for a collision. A car that halts for a signal sometimes is rammed from the rear by another vehicle whose driver is inattentive.

At the uncontrolled intersections, particularly where sight distance is bad, the collisions result most frequently from autos pulling onto a thoroughfare into the path of oncoming traffic. Lack of proper depth perception and an optimistic view of the relative speed of the oncoming car also seem to be factors.

REAR-END collisions crop up most frequently in traffic lanes during peak hours. If a line of traffic halts and just one driver is not alert, it can trigger a very costly "chain reaction" mishap involving a whole series of autos.

Hit-skip crashes come in all varieties. Usually they involve parked autos, but sometimes an oncoming car strikes a moving auto and the offending driver escapes, despite efforts of the other to catch him.

In writing accident reports, East Liverpool police use a comprehensive form recommended by the National Safety Council. In addition to all the usual data on the drivers and their vehicles, it calls for a diagram of the accident scene, showing the positions of the cars, and a host of facts on road and weather conditions, the type of pavement and an indication whether either of the motorists had been drinking.

Six of the March crashes were on E. 3rd St. at or near a cross street. Two more were on intersecting streets near E. 3rd. E. 3rd and Walnut, controlled by a stop sign, accounted for four of the mishaps. E. 3rd at Washington, W. 3rd at Jefferson and W. 3rd at Persimmon Alley had one each.

MARKET AT E. 3rd St. and College at E. 3rd St. showed one crash each.

There were 12 crashes on East End's main thoroughfare. Two were on Pennsylvania Ave. in front of a shopping plaza. Two were at Pennsylvania Ave. and Elizabeth St., one at Elizabeth St. at Anna Ave., two on Harvey Ave. at Putnam St., one at Pennsylvania Ave. and Dewey Ave. one at Pennsylvania Ave. and Oakland Ave., two on Pennsylvania Ave. at Boyce St. and one at Pennsylvania Ave. and Central Ave.

March showed eight mishaps on the W. 8th St. stretch. There were four collisions on W. 8th St. at Shadyside Ave., one on W. 8th near a Freeway interchange, another near the Patterson Field entrance, one at W. 8th and Jefferson and one at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts.

Although it's heavily traveled, Lisbon St. saw only five mishaps in March. There were three at Lisbon and W. 9th Sts., reputed to be one of the most dangerous intersections in the city; one in the 1900 block and one in the 2000 block.

St. Clair Ave. saw crashes only at McKinnon and Princeton Aves., intersections south of the new three-lane pavement. There also were mishaps on Burrows Ave. at St. Clair and Gardendale Ave. at St. Clair.

The rest of the accident sites are scattered all over the city map, without any real pattern. Most of the major downtown streets saw at least one crash during the month. And there were crashes on Bradshaw, Drury Ln., East Alley, Smithfield St., Ridge Alley, Union St., St. George St. and many other locations.

Twenty of the collisions were blamed on the failure of one driver of the other to yield the right-of-way. Six were blamed on drivers who crashed stop signs or traffic lights. Fourteen were seen as violation of the so-called assured clear distance law, which usually boils down to ramming into the car ahead.

Three motorists were charged with driving while intoxicated and four were accused of not having their vehicles under control. Four more were charged with crossing a center line. Mechanical failure was blamed in two collisions.

Twelve accidents were classified as hit-and-run cases. They involved vehicles which ran into parked cars or private property or struck a moving vehicle.

IN 22 CASES, most of them one-car accidents, a vehicle struck a parked auto or private property — usually a utility pole. Two motorists ran into street excavations. Another mishap was blamed on a wheel falling off a auto, throwing it out of control. In another instance, a parked car drifted off a privately-owned lot and hit a parked car on a street.

The times at which the mishaps occurred showed no real pattern. The highest accident frequency was shown at 3:15 p.m., when there were four crashes. Three each were recorded at 12 midnight, 12:30 a.m., 1:45 a.m., 3 a.m., 2:30 p.m. and 6:45 p.m. A compilation showed the two longest accident-free periods fell between 8:30 and 9:45 a.m. and 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. Only 10 accidents were recorded for the whole month in the evening hours between 7 and 10. The mishap rate nearly doubled in the period between 10 p.m. and midnight.

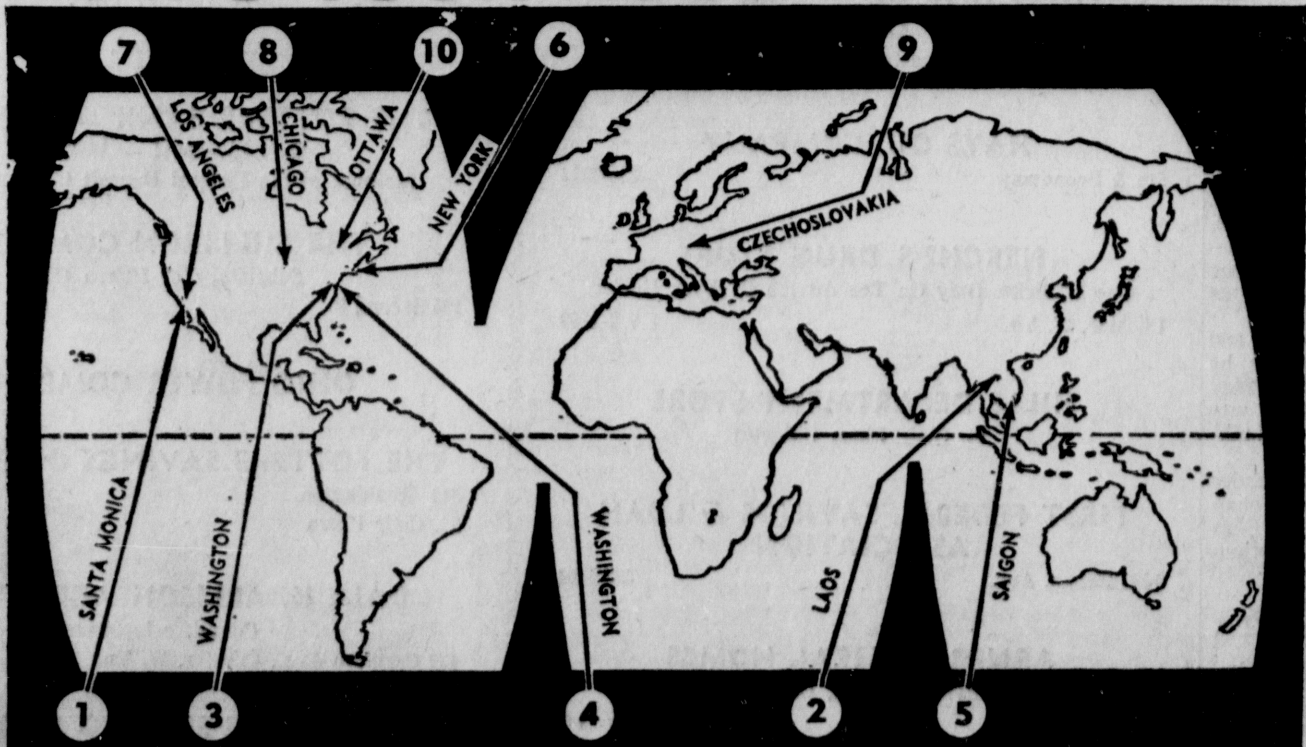

The reports show 14 drivers, six passengers and one pedestrian were hurt in the March accidents. Weather was only a small factor. Only two of last month's crashes were blamed on slippery pavements.

8 Kent Cuties Seek Queen Title

These eight girls competed this week to represent Kent State University's branch here in the Campus Day events at the university May 10. They are, left to right Debbie Corsetto of Wellsville RD 1; Lynette Hughes of Toronto; Karen Shoff of Lakeview Estates, Calcutta; Deneane Thomas of East Liverpool RD 2; Sally Anderson of Haywood St.; Vickie Smith of Toronto; Nancy Doland of 601 Orchard Grove Ave., and Carol Weber of East Liverpool RD 2. The winner chosen by balloting of the student body at the local center, will be announced tonight at 10:30 during a dance in the center at E. 4th St. and Broadway.

Stamps In The News

The Scandinavian countries are heralding "100 years of postal cooperation" this year with a common issue of stamps bearing the same design. Featured on the stamps is an unusual ancient drawing of five Viking ships which originally appeared on an ancient coin. The countries honoring the occasion with the special issue are Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Finland and Iceland. The designer of the stamps is Sven Ake Gustafson of Sweden.

CHINESE MUSIC dates back some 4,000 years. Until recently such music played on unique instruments had developed into a fundamental aspect of Chinese culture. In an attempt to revive the ancient music and develop a greater appreciation of it, the Republic of China (Formosa) has issued four new stamps depicting different instruments, reports the World Wide Philatelic Agency. Appearing on the set are: the Sheng, which resembles a teapot with symmetrical bamboo pipes protruding from one end; the pi-pa, which looks like a mandolin or ukulele; the Cheng, which is a 16-string zither played horizontally; and the Ti, which is a horizontal flute.

The four Chinese music stamps are now available at your local stamp dealer or stamp department.

THE MAIL BAG: To ex-Marine Sgt. Paul T. Boyd of Mitchell, Ind. — You can obtain your sets of stamps honoring the 25th anniversary of the Battle of Tarawa issued by the Gilbert and Ellice Islands directly from the Crown Agents Representative, 3100 Massachusetts Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C. 20008. Accompany your request with a money order of 50 cents per set.

To Mrs. W. B. Cotner of Lima, Ohio — the Australian mail service from Mt. Kosciuszko will cost approximately 25 cents for the set of four stamps. Send your addressed envelopes together with a money order for this amount to the Officer in Charge, Philatelic Bureau, 664 Bourke St., Melbourne, Victoria, 3000 Australia.

To Harold Hager of Clinton, Iowa — I suggest you write directly to the Alabama Centennial Commission, Birmingham, Ala., and tell them of your request for the contest rules.

COLLECTORS OF U.S. air-mail stamps are wondering if their speciality is at an end. If the new U.S. postal plans go into effect, it will mean that the present 6-cent first class will be raised to 7 cents — and all mail will be transported by the fastest available means. Thus there would be no air-mail stamps needed!

SCOTT'S NEW U. S. Checklist booklet is available for 69 cents. Compiled by James B. Hatcher, the checklist provides instant information based on the Scott catalogue and identifies every major variety of U.S. stamps. The pocket-size edition enables collectors to carry their inventory with them wherever they go.

HOCKEY MAY BE Canada's No. 1 sport, but curling advocates will argue the point. To honor curling, Canada has issued a new 6 cents stamp featuring game action. The Canadian Curling Assn. estimates there are half a million curlers in that country, more than 1,900 curling clubs affiliated with the association and many more non-affiliated.

BARBS

Fairy tales for grownups: the spring garden catalogues.

The Younger Set

HIPPIE GO HOME! — Mexico cracks down hard on hippie crackpots. Government hands out harsh treatment to discourage presence of the bearded and dirty. Long terms in jail awaiting hearings are part of the Mexican "cure" for a growing blight on its beaches. Many of the unwelcome visitors end up with shaven heads and faces as a "sanitary" measure. The word is getting around hippieland fast.

... "Stay out of Mexico." Just what the authorities hoped would happen. The cleanup is aimed at protecting Mexico's No. 1 industry... tourism. The mangy vagabonds who are being arrested seem dazed by their lack of rights. U.S. consular personnel are busy night and day trying to ease the problem, but a simple fact remains: The Mexicans feel the hippie creed-breed a threat to their tourist image and they will continue to employ every possible form of harassment to cleanse their beaches, resorts and cities. Ninety days on the cement floor of a Mexican jail awaiting a mere hearing is enough to shape up most hard-core Height-Ashbury trained itinerants.

TIME OF THE TEENS — Teens increasing at rate of one million a year. Will total 30 million by next year. Part-time employment opportunities have increased total purchasing power potential. 1.4 million teen girls are now married. Over 50 per cent are engaged before they are 20.

FATHERLESS BABY BOOM — Ten years ago only one out of 16 to one out of 20 unwed mothers wanted to keep her baby. A California child care center reports now that one out of three now insists upon caring for and keeping her baby. The figures may not be totally accurate nationwide, but the strong trend is significant. The girls have their own ideas on public opinion and at times defy parental objections. The emotional collapse that was S.O.P. a few years ago is somewhat modified by a changing morality base. Many more parents change over from outraged indignation to helpful understanding when faced with the moment of truth. The continuing big problem is the girl who just doesn't care. And what about the unwed father? His emotional reaction remains an almost unfathomed story.

Outdoor Notes

Remember those solemn promises you made the kids last winter that you would take them camping as soon as the weather breaks. Well, the weather has broken, and it's time to keep your promise, or else think of a good reason to back out.

If you decide to make the trip to the wilds, you had better consider the possibility things may be a little different now than when you packed your gear and headed for the woods. The old two-man pup tent is out. There are basically two types of tents for family camping. One is the classic wall tent, roomier than any other model, but also harder to pitch and strike. A wall tent requires a ridge pole and guy ropes, but its steeply pitched roof sheds water easily, and lots of mosquito netting screened windows allow plentiful ventilation.

The second type is the pop, not pup, tent. The most popular model today, it is supported by aluminum framing and requires no guy ropes. Also called umbrella tents, they are easily put up by one man.

Of course if you want to step up a little in class, you can use one of the very popular campers. They run the gamut from the pop-up models to the house trailer styles. The pop-ups measure about five by eight feet and when they are unfolded, reveal beds, dining table, complete galley and even a chemical toilet.

Of course, one of the big worries is how you are going to sleep during the night. A good night's sleep calls for a good sleeping bag. Last week's column discussed some of the pros and cons of buying the right sleeping bag, so let's go onto one of the basics every camper should remember after he arrives on the campsite.

A CAMP ISN'T A CAMP without a fire. A lot of campers spend a lot of their time in public camp grounds and have little occasion to build a real campfire. They make use of the readymade fire places, built more for safety than convenience. If you do make frequent use of public campgrounds, it would be wise to carry a supply of charcoal briquets. These are more efficient and easier to manage than firewood. Besides, firewood in public campgrounds is usually scarce.

But let's resort to the more adventuresome type of fire for a while. Let's keep in mind that a roaring fire is good for keeping warm and singing campfire songs around, but it's useless for cooking.

Try to build your fire so prevailing winds carry the smoke away from the tent and food preparation area. Scrape away all leaves, twigs and combustible humus from the fire site. Make sure you dig down to bare dirt, and in rocky areas build a ring around the fire pit. Remember a fire must be well ventilated to burn properly.

In dry weather, twigs and leaves make excellent kindling. Always use dry wood until the fire gets going. Then add green, wet wood. Start with small twigs and build up to thick limbs or logs.

You will have to use some ingenuity if the wood is wet to begin with. Remove the bark from a dead limb, getting down to dry wood. Shave this with a knife until you have several fuzzy balls.

Before you start cooking, let the wood burn down to a mound of red-hot coals. Feed small amounts of wood to it thereafter. Coals are much better to cook over than a high blaze. Setting utensils down in the fire is a poor way to operate. Carry a metal grid to use as a grill.

Never build your fire under low branches. Always watch flying sparks, especially on windy days in dry weather. Always douse the fire thoroughly with water when you're through. Better yet, bury it with wet sand.

SOMEONE UP THERE must have thought a lot about worm fishermen because there are a great many around. Among them are the lead slingers who perch on banks, bridges, dams, trees, boats, rocks and barges. This clan catches a lot of trout on good old garden hackle and a host of miscellaneous baits.

Another branch of the worm dunking fraternity wades out into the mainstream after the fish. They also take their share of trout. If there is an art to this type of worm fishing, it is not done with the sophisticated techniques of the fly fishers, certainly it is practiced with zeal and diligence.

A good worm man uses a fly rod equipped with a level line and a 6-foot leader in early spring, moving to a 9-footer when the water becomes lower and clear. He uses Nos. four, six or eight snelled hooks; long shank if using nitecrawlers, short shank if using garden worms. Split shot or wrap-around lead strips are placed just above the hook loop and are varied in number to fit the strength of the current.

Take a position along the main chute facing at right angles to the current. Cast the worm upstream and allow the weight to roll the bait naturally along the bottom until a trout strikes with the familiar "bump-bump-bump" signal up the line.

When the bait reaches the point directly below and downstream without a bite, slowly raise the rod tip, then cast upstream repeating the process. Continue to work out all the glides and pockets of the current before changing to another position. An experienced worm fisherman, before wetting a line, scans the stream for the places his eye and senses tell him trout are most likely to lie. He reads every whirl and swirl, notes obstructions, underwater rocks, then works only this part of the stream. Watch the old pro enter a stream and take a lesson in approaching a position. He glides into the stream as softly as a ballet dancer then fishes his position with a quiet efficiency.

It may all sound like too much trouble and a bit too cautious for just plain worm fishing, but if you want results we highly recommend it.

OHIO POWER CO'S 25th annual tree planting program in southeastern Ohio is in full swing. By the end of April, about 1,850,000 tree seedlings will have been planted this season in Guernsey, Noble, Morgan and Muskingum counties.

The company planting program is occurring primarily in areas where coal has been surface-mined for use in Muskingum River and Philo power plants. The end result is reforestation and reclamation of lands which have outlived their earlier usefulness.

When the current planting program has been completed, the company will have planted 26,200,000 seedlings since the project began a quarter century ago. Areas where the first plantings took place now are covered with tall trees, and a number of free public campsites have been developed in the reclaimed land. Fishing ponds, well stocked, around in the area. Small game animals are plentiful.

Walter D. Smith, reclamation supervisor for the company, said about 125 acres of mined lands will be grass seeded this year in addition to the tree planting project. This is in keeping with the "best use of land" policy the company has been following since before strip mine reclamation legislation came into effect.

The company's camping and fishing facilities are open to the public. Interested persons may obtain free permits and maps at any Ohio Power office. A State of Ohio fishing license is required.

You And The Law

All of us are familiar with the headlines of today citing the increase in crime.

There is no single reason for this increase, but the fact that some persons give the potential criminal a "break" by leaving the ignition keys in their auto doesn't help matters.

Police say that many persons would not have the chance to commit a crime if citizens would follow some common sense precautions. Here are a few:

- 1.—Know the identity of the person calling at your door. Don't just open the door automatically.
- 2.—Don't leave keys under door mats or outside places.
- 3.—Stop milk and newspaper deliveries if you are going to be away from your home for a long period of time. Have a neighbor pick up your mail.
- 4.—When walking, stay on main sidewalks. Don't take shortcuts—day or night.

5.—Look around the garage or street before entering or getting out of your car.

6.—Before getting into your car, always check the back seat and floor for someone hiding there.

7.—Never pick up a hitchhiker.

Many St. Louis motorists have been doing a double take at this auto and what appears to be a girl sunning herself while riding on the car's roof. It turns out to be a life-size mannequin in an advertising gimmick by Carl Wyman, salesman for an exercising lounge chair firm. (UPI Telephoto)

Casper, Devlin Tied In Masters

Moose Hurls 7-1 Victory

Arnie Palmer Just Makes Cut By Stroke

By BOB GREIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Arnie Palmer was an aging also-ran, his head down and his game in tatters, trailing such performers as B.R. McLendon, Roberto Bernardini and Teikichi Kono today as a trimmed-down field set out in pursuit of Billy Casper and Bruce Devlin in the Masters golf tournament.

The once-proud ruler of all he surveyed in the golfing world yowed he's never quit trying, but, in the big ones, it doesn't seem to matter much anymore.

He missed the cut in last year's Masters, hasn't won a major title in five years, hasn't been a factor in a major event since collapsing before Casper in the 1966 U.S. Open, and made the cut for the final two rounds of the Masters this year by just one stroke.

"As long as I feel okay, I'm going to keep on trying to win," he said Friday after shooting a 75 for 148, 11 shots back on Casper and Devlin going into the third round on the 6,980-yard, par 72 Augusta National course.

But the grit was out of the statement.

"I've never hit the ball quite so badly. Right now I don't have the confidence to do much about it, but I'll keep on trying," said the gallery idol who's rapidly closing in on 40, a little on the elderly side for an athlete.

He simply couldn't do anything right in the sweltering heat, taking bogeys on four holes, while two-time U.S. Open champion Casper and Devlin, a reed-slim Australian, were the most successful in a day-long, frustrating struggle with brutal pin placements.

"The pins were extremely difficult," Casper said after a 71 to go with his opening 66.

"The flags were in very difficult positions," Devlin echoed after a 70, also for 137. "I have never seen any tougher."

The observations generally were agreed to by a field that tired and fell back, leaving Casper and Devlin with a three-stroke lead over lanky George Archer and veteran Dan Sikes, tied at 140. Sikes had a second-round 71 and Archer a 73.

It was two more strokes back to a group of nine deadlocked at 142—Charles Coody, Dave Stockton, Lionel Hebert, Al Geibinger, Tom Weiskopf, Bruce Crampton, Timmy Aarn, Mann Rudolph and Miller Barber.

Big Jack Nicklaus still was a factor at 143 after a second-round 75 and Gary Player, the little South African, who, along with Nicklaus and Palmer, once made up the awesome Big Three, was at 144.

U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino was at 146, one stroke back of PGA king Julius Boros. Defending champion Bob Goalby was at 146 and Roberto de Vicenzo missed the cut at 150.

Casper, continuing to play cautiously, had one bogey, when he three-putted the sixth, and two birds. The first came on a 40-foot putt at 14 and the other after a blind approach to the 17th stopped three feet from the pin.

Devlin, playing about a half-hour behind Casper, caught him with a whopping, 45-foot birdie putt on the 18th. He'd taken bogeys on Nos. 3 and 5, and said the turning point of the round came with a birdie on the seventh.

Winners Rally In 6th ELHS Nine Bows 8-6 At Wellsburg

WELLSBURG — Wellsburg came up with three runs in the sixth inning then went on to blank the East Liverpool Pottery in the seventh to gain an 8-6 victory here Friday.

The loss was the second in three games for the Pottery.

East Liverpool broke a 3-3 tie in the fourth inning by scoring a run then added another in the fifth for a 5-2 lead. Wellsburg bounced back for two runs in the last of the fifth to tie the game at 5-5.

The Pottery took a 6-5 lead in the sixth inning on a walk, a single by Dan Cunningham and an error on the third base which allowed the run to score.

In the last of the sixth, Wellsburg put together three hits and two walks for three runs to move in front for good.

Bill Montgomery hurled for the Pottery allowing nine hits. Montgomery was the losing hurler and Doyle picked up the victory for Wellsburg.

East Liverpool collected seven hits with second baseman Dan Cunningham lashing three safeties including a double and triple and 2 RBI's. Montgomery helped his own cause with a double and single and John Haney drove in two of the Pottery's runs.

Wellsburg's batting star was Bill Pettini who drove in four runs on a pair of singles. It was Pettini's single in the sixth inning with the bases loaded that sent home two runs.

The Pottery were scheduled to meet South Side this afternoon.

Southern Local Nine Opens Play Monday

Southern Local, which didn't win a baseball game last season, should be quite a bit improved this time around, according to coach Al Girone.

There are eight veterans on hand, including three left-handed pitchers, junior George Thompson and sophomores Bob Diehl and Kim Needham.

Jack Thompson, letterman junior, is the top catching prospect, with sophomores Roger Jones and Dean Hayes also available.

Lettermen infielders are senior Dan Buckel, juniors Rob Carter and Al Swearingen and sophomore Terry Kellison. Senior John Richards is the lone letterman outfielder, with senior Mark Chevront and juniors Tim Leek, Chuck Gamble, Lee Higgs, Mike Brown and Mike Smith also fighting for outfield berths. Girone emphasizes that no position is nailed down yet.

Southern is hampered by lack of a home field and will play all its games on the road. All games are Buckeye Border Conference contests.

The schedule:

Girl Jockey Not Injured After Spill

By JOHN VAN GIESON
MIAMI (AP) — Diane Crump, the first female jockey to race a horse at a major American track, Friday became the first female jockey to fall off a horse at a major American track.

And although she hit hard, she's taking it lightly.

The petite girl jockey was involved in a three-horse spill in the fourth race at Gulfstream Park and was knocked unconscious. But she recovered in time to bound from the stretcher and walk to the ambulance. She was taken to a hospital for precautionary X-rays, but was released later.

Miss Crump was aboard Misquonia when the horse appeared to clip the heels of Micky Rablere and stumble. Misquonia fell, pitching the slender girl to the ground.

Putter Power, under Don Brumfield, fell over Misquonia, throwing Brumfield. Apprentice Bobby Breen on Bouncing Swiftly, veered to the outside and also fell off.

In the hospital emergency room, Miss Crump said, "I was just starting to make my move." She said she could remember nothing after that.

"I was out cold for a while," she said, and then added quickly, "I'll be riding again just as soon as I get out of here."

The right side of her face was bruised and scraped and she suffered a cut lip. She left the hospital wearing a neck brace.

Brumfield had two cuts on the forehead and a sprained right wrist. He canceled his last three mounts. Breen was not hurt.

Undaunted by Miss Crump's mishap, Arlene Dittmore joined the ranks of women jockeys in the sixth race. She finished fifth aboard Nickel Sale, a 20-1 shot. Later, she commented, "It's a lot different than exercising horses in the morning."

Time for your big moment

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
A good trade, it has been said, is one which helps both teams. On Friday, at least, the Orlando Cepeda-Joe Torre trade was a very good one for the Atlanta Braves and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Cepeda and Torre both hammered home runs, leading Atlanta and St. Louis to victories. The Braves tagged Cincinnati 6-4 and the Cardinals won their first after three losses, nipping New York 6-5.

In other National League games Friday, Chicago shut out Montreal 1-0 in 12 innings, Pittsburgh dropped Philadelphia 7-1, Los Angeles battered Houston 9-3 and San Francisco blanked San Diego 8-0.

In the American League, New York rapped Detroit 9-4, Boston edged Cleveland 2-1 in 16 innings, Seattle shut out Chicago 7-0, Oakland blanked Kansas City 5-0, Washington shut out Baltimore 4-0 and California downed Minnesota 5-3.

Both sides in the Cepeda-Torre training camp swap looked good after the two sluggers unloaded on the Reds and Mets.

Cepeda's leadoff homer in the eighth inning snapped a 4-4 tie and gave the unbeaten Braves their fourth straight victory. Atlanta added an insurance run and then Cecil Upshaw came out of the bullpen to nail down the final out in Ron Reed's victory.

The homer was Cepeda's only hit of the game and it was the only one the Braves needed. Torre had an even better time against the Mets.

Shackled by a 1-for-14 slump as the Cardinals dropped their first three starts, Torre jumped out of it with a single, double and homer. His double started a two-run rally in the third against Jerry Koosman and then he tagged a 400-foot homer in the seventh.

The Mets were so shook up by Torre that they gave him an intentional walk in the ninth following Vada Pinson's two-out double. Mike Shanno followed with a two-run double that gave the Cards enough of a cushion to stand off Cleon Jones' two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

Torre was the subject of winter-long trade speculation, with most of the rumors sending him to New York, his home town. But the Mets backed out at the last moment and the Braves sent him to St. Louis for Cepeda instead. It was a move neither club regretted Friday.

UND—NI Rdup St 115: Friday The Cubs won their fourth straight when Billy Williams' 12th-inning single drove in Don Kessinger with the only run of the game against Montreal. Chicago's Joe Niekro and Carl Morton of the Expos had battled through the first nine scoreless innings before each left for a pinch hitter.

Pittsburgh's Bob Moose fired a five-hitter and the Pirates won their fourth in a row, beating the Phillies. Jerry May had his second home run of the season for Pittsburgh.

Rookie Ted Sizemore smacked three hits, including a bases-loaded triple, and drove in four runs, leading Los Angeles past Houston. Sizemore's triple broke a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning and then the shortstop stole home for another run. Bill Russell, another rookie, homered for the Dodgers.

Willie Mays tagged his first home run of the season and the 588th of his career and Ray Sadecki threw a six-hitter as San Francisco halted its three-game losing streak with an 8-0 victory over San Diego. It was the first loss for the Padres, who committed five errors.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "You try to follow the ball coming off the backboard, but there's a little luck in getting that rebound," explained Mel Counts.

With 24 seconds left in the opening game of the Western playoffs of the National Basketball Association, the 7-footer had the luck and the shot and with a 95-93 victory, his Los Angeles Lakers held a 1-0 edge over Atlanta.

The Lakers trailed 93-92 Friday night when Keith Erickson shot. Counts took the rebound and followed with a field goal while being fouled by Bill Bridges. He then sank the free throw.

Atlanta trailed by 15 points on three occasions, but then rallied late in the third period, aided by some frigid shooting by the Lakers, and had gone ahead in the fourth.

Zelmo Beaty scored 29 for the losers as high scorer in the game and Coach Richie Guerin commented, "We can come back. If Beaty gets his shots on Sunday, it will be different."

On Sunday, New York plays at Boston in an afternoon game with the Celtics leading that series 2-1, while Atlanta plays again in Los Angeles that night in the best four-of-seven set.

With little Johnny Egan pacing the attack with 15 points, the Lakers surged ahead 53-40 at halftime, before 16,190 at the Forum.

Near the end of the third period, the home club went cold and for a total of 6 minutes, 53 seconds, extending into the fourth quarter, they didn't score a field goal. By then Atlanta led 82-77.

Counts ended the drought. Then he, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West paced a winning comeback helped by the rebounding of 7-foot-2 Wilt Chamberlain.

It was Chamberlain who rebounded an Atlanta shot in the final seconds to kill off one of the two final Hawk chances. On the second, Paul Silas missed shots, the latter right at the buzzer.

West led Laker scorers with 25 points while Egan had 18, Baylor 16 and Chamberlain 15 in addition to grabbing 29 rebounds.

Walt Hazzard scored 18 for Atlanta and Bridges 14.

No games were scheduled in the American Basketball Association on Friday night.

Potter Golf Team Easily Wins No. 3

East Liverpool High School's golf team made it three straight Friday with a lopsided 167-267 win over Carrollton at the country club.

Andy Patrick was medalist with a 39 while Bill McHenry and Bob Kinsey recorded 42's and Ralph Heffner 44.

The No. 5 player for East Liverpool, Ken Johnson, also fired a 39 for the Pottery but his score did not count in the team total.

The Potters meet Leetonia Monday at Copeland Hills.

Beaver Local Nine Romps At Midland

Beaver Local's golf team dropped its first match in three starts when Columbiana won 165-174 Friday at the Valley Golf Course in Columbiana.

Dale Reash fired a two-par 37 to lead Columbiana while brother Dan and Cliff Newell had 42's and Jim Powers 44.

Rick Metz paced the Beavers with 41 while Bob Eardley had 43, Dave Bentz 44 and John Torma 46.

Beaver Local plays at Salem Tuesday.

Lisbon's Track Team Wins 2nd

With Mike Kodrich and Ken Pittenger winning two events each, Lisbon shaded Crestview 65-62 in track Friday at Crestview.

Kodrich won the 880 yard run in 2:22.8 and the mile in 5:15. Pittenger took two field events in winning the shot put at 42 feet 4 inches and the discus at 111 feet, 10 inches.

The victory leaves Lisbon with a 2-2 record. The Blue Devils face West Branch and Southeast Tuesday at West Branch.

Indians Lose 2-1 In 16; 3 AL Shutouts Recorded

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's rulesmakers have taken a couple of inches away from the pitchers, but American League hitters appear to be in the same old rut.

Oakland's Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Seattle's Gary Bell and a trio of Washington Senators threw blanks Friday as AL pitchers demonstrated that 1969 could well become another Year of the Zero despite the lowering of the mound five inches in deference to last year's humbled hitters.

Hunter fired a six-hitter as the Athletics trimmed Kansas City 5-0 and Washington's Barry Moore, Casey Cox and Dennis Higgins teamed up to stop Baltimore 4-0 on six hits in night games. Bell scattered nine hits and stranded 14 Chicago base-runners in the Pilots' 7-0 matinee romp over the White Sox.

Joe Pepitone rapped four hits, including a two-run homer, as the New York Yankees ripped Detroit 9-4. Tom Satriano and Jay Johnstone clubbed two-run homers, leading California past

Minnesota 5-3 and Boston nipped Cleveland 2-1 in 16 innings.

In the National League, St. Louis edged the New York Mets 6-5, Pittsburgh downed Philadelphia 7-1, the Chicago Cubs shaded Atlanta 1-0 in 12 innings, Los Angeles drubbed Houston 9-3 and San Francisco blanked San Diego 8-0.

Hunter, whose 13 victories last season include a perfect game against Minnesota, sent the expansion Royals to their first setback in three starts, striking out six along the way. Dave Duncan and Danny Cater each delivered two Oakland runs off loser Dave Morehead.

Light-hitting Ed Brinkman poked his first home run since 1967 and Tim Lincecum stroked a two-run single as the Senators reeled off their third straight victory after a season-opening loss to the White Sox.

Joe Pepitone rapped four hits, including a two-run homer, as the New York Yankees ripped Detroit 9-4. Tom Satriano and Jay Johnstone clubbed two-run homers, leading California past light jams and contributed a two-run double to the Pilots' attack. Don Mincher drilled a two-run homer off loser Joe Horlen.

Pepitone stroked a single and two doubles in addition to his homer and Roy White broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth with a two-run blast as the Yankees handed the world champion Tigers their first loss in three games. Lindy McDaniel picked up the victory in relief of rookie Bill Burbach.

Left-handed George Thomas spotted Minnesota a 1-0 lead on rookie George Mitterwald's homer, then checked Minnesota on three more hits until the ninth, when Tony Oliva and Bob Allison cracked successive homers. Hoyt Wilhelm then came out of the bullpen to get the last three outs.

Pinch hitter George Thomas delivered the winning run for Boston with a ground out in the 16th, giving the Red Sox their second triumph in three extra-inning struggles. Singles by Rico Petrocelli and Russ Gibson off Indians' reliever Jack Hamilton set the stage for Thomas.

N. Brighton Rolls 109-27 Over Western

Western Beaver only won two events as New Brighton romped to a 109-27 track victory Friday at Rochester.

Russ Engle won the 440-yard dash in 57.1 and Brad Schmitt took the high jump at 5 feet, 6 inches for Western's only victories.

The results follow:

Trout On Hook In Pennsylvania

BOILING SPRINGS, Pa. (AP) — With Gov. Shafer making it an "official" opener, the trout fishing season began in Pennsylvania today.

A half million anglers are expected to cast their lines into the state's streams and lakes. The governor's office announced Shafer would try his luck in Yellow Breeches Creek in this Cumberland County community.

The legal 8 a.m. starting time was three hours later than in years gone by.

Fishing conditions were described as ideal by Robert J. Bielo, executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, who noted that water levels are excellent because of recent rains.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said it would be generally cool throughout the state with variable cloudiness over mountain areas and a high in the 50s and 60s.

The regular trout season will end Sept. 1, except in lakes and ponds over 10 acres in size where fishing is legal until Oct. 31.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Tasty 'Charcoal Bread'

DEAR FOLKS: When you are grilling steaks on those gray frosted charcoal briquettes and having French garlic bread at the same time, try my new discovery.

I take a big loaf of French bread and cut it in real thick slices. It's smoked charcoal bread! Then spread BOTH sides of the bread using butter or oil creamed with onion and garlic salt.

Wrap it in foil or put it back in its original wrapper to keep it from drying out. If you are having company, this may be done a day ahead of time and kept in your refrigerator.

As soon as your steaks are cooked and the coals are about "shot" and died down, take all the slices of buttered bread and lay them out on your grill.

Then cover them with foil. I use a lid from a turkey roaster if I am out of foil.

The "tent" will capture all the smoke and it will go into the bread. Oh . . . you talk about something different? This really is.

Turn each slice over after about a half-minute. May not take that long if your charcoal is too hot. Smoke the other side!

Don't let it stay too long.

By the time you get your hamburger patties or steak and salad on the table, it's ready.

This is also a fantabulous idea for hamburger buns. Sure makes that old ordinary hamburger taste different.

I also learned that I could cut the extra loaf of French bread, spread it on both sides, smoke only slightly and freeze it!

Next time you are having spaghetti, remove the loaf from your freezer, wrap in foil and heat in the oven. You won't have your grill all fired up then, remember?

Ummmm . . . good.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: The only way we can afford vacation time is to play ahead long before the big day.

As campers, we tote a lot of food that is often expensive in the stores near campsites and tourist areas.

I buy a dab of this and a can of that, each payday for two months before vacation.

My rule of thumb is nothing packed in glass, or large boxes if possible, and only small cans unless I'm sure we'll use a whole large can at one meal.

I pack noodles, macaroni, spaghetti, biscuit mix, etc., in plastic sandwich bags in amounts enough for one meal per bag. No half-empty boxes. For instant mashed potatoes, I measure one recipe of the potatoes, salt and powdered milk into the bag and label the outside with the number of servings and amount of butter and water to add.

Just before we start off, I add a few fresh potatoes and onions, plus fresh, not-too-ripe tomatoes and salad greens to my larder for the first few days.

On the last day of vacation, I clean up my "kitchen" by offering the leftovers to anyone nearby who is staying longer than we are — the last bit of shortening, sugar, bacon, etc., so I have less to pack and unpack and no spoilage on the road.

PAT FELLER.

DEAR HELOISE: Have you ever been infuriated to find the family cat up on the table or kitchen counter?

I often was, until our last kitten.

Since she was very small we have always fed her up on a two-and-a-half-foot stepladder.

That place became so firmly associated with food that she climbs up and yowls when she's hungry.

But she never goes looking any other place. She won't even eat from a bowl on the floor now!

House Struck By Auto Here

An area man was treated at City Hospital and released following a one-car accident at W. 9th St. and Lincoln Ave. Friday.

Charles Weyand, 25, of RD 1 suffered contusions of the chin when the auto he was driving struck a two-apartment house at the corner of Lincoln Ave. Weyand told police his brakes failed as he went to turn from Lincoln onto 9th St. Several children playing in the area and a police officer off duty at the time witnessed the accident.

Weyand was charged with driving while under license revocation, driving an unsafe vehicle and driving under false application.

Howard K. Wheatley of Wells-ville RD 1 is the owner of the house.

The accident was timed at 3:15 p.m.

A stuck accelerator pedal was blamed for a two-car accident at the intersection of 5th St. and East Alley Friday at 6:59 p.m.

William Edwin Foden, 22, of 234 W. 3rd St. was driving west on 5th St. when his accelerator pedal stuck. He told police that as he reached down to free the pedal an auto driven by Donald E. Merritt, 20, of LaCroft Ave. pulled out of the alley and the collision resulted.

The 1961 auto Merritt was driving was owned by Franklin E. Moss of 5th Ave., LaCroft.

Police investigated a hit-skip accident on W. Drury Ln., 30 feet east of Peach Alley Friday at 11:29 a.m.

An unidentified car struck a large stone step at the home of William Stanford of 120 W. Drury Ln., moving the step about two feet and knocking out a chunk. A corner strip was also knocked off the house.

No one was injured in a two-car accident on Haywood St. about 200 yards east of Broad St. today at 3:24 a.m.

Harry E. Moore, 33, of 290 Haywood St. told police he was driving east on Haywood when his car pulled to the right and struck a parked car belonging to Clarence D. Hartley of 1218 Erie St.

Both Moore's 1969 sedan and Hartley's 1965 convertible were damaged on the right front fenders.

The Fontana Dam in North Carolina is the highest dam in the U.S. east of the Rockies.

NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Board of Education of the Southern Local School District, Columbiana, Carroll and Jefferson Counties, Ohio, passed on the 8th day of January, 1969, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Southern Local School District at the SPECIAL ELECTION to be held in the amount of ONE HUNDRED SIXTY THOUSAND AND NO-100 DOLLARS ($166,000) for the purpose of constructing, furnishing and equipping additional classroom facilities at the High School and improving school site as provided by law.

The maximum number of years during which such bonds are to run is 18 years.

The estimated average additional tax rate amounts to Twelve Cents ($0.12) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, which is 1.2 mills for each one dollar of valuation, outside of the limitation imposed by Article XII, Section 2 of the Constitution, as certified by the County Auditor.

The Polls for said Election will open at 6:30 o'clock A. M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P. M. Eastern Daylight Time of said day.

By order of the Board of Education, of Columbiana County, Ohio

C. L. Stacey, Chairman

Rebecca Z. Resnick, Director

Dated January 8, 1969.

E. L. Review: April 5, 12, 19, 26, 1969.

TO: ALBERT GEORGE LAMP, whose place of residence is unknown.

You will hereby take notice that on the thirteenth day of March, 1969, Patricia Ann Lamp filed her petition for divorce in the Common Pleas Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, in Case No. 53883 said petition in substance charging Wilful Absence for one year, Excessive Cruelty and Gross Neglect of Duty and praying that the Plaintiff, Patricia Ann Lamp be divorced, given custody of the minor children, support, award of furniture, and for such other equitable relief as the Court may permit and that said cause will be for hearing six (6) weeks and one (1) day from the date of the first publication hereof.

George Steele

Attorney for Plaintiff Patricia Ann Lamp

E. L. Review: March 15, 22, 29; April 5, 12, 19, 1969.

SECOND STREET, CHESTER—$8,500, with a low, low down payment will buy you this 6 room home and bath, all floors carpeted, except kitchen and bath, that has vinyl floors. Kitchen, living room and dining room all newly paneled, storm doors and windows, large garage. Cool in the summer and warm in the winter. Just listen to this. Gas hot water heat, and gas hot water tank. Now listen good. A $14.00 per month budget.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL ROAD. Sure you have dreams, we all do. Now if you are coming close to that retirement dream for you and mother, go to bed tonight have a good night's sleep, but dream a little about this. 4 acres, that lays beautiful. I mean you don't have to have a cane and crutch to get over it. No filth to cut or cleaning up to do. But here is what it does have. A nice size family orchard of semi dwarf fruit trees just now bearing good; 1000 black raspberry vines well taken care of; 50 red raspberries, a real nice strawberry patch, well taken care of. A 4 room brick home with oil furnace. I can only think of one more thing to add to this dream. One should have a good beagle hound. Oh yes there is a double garage. Price $12,000. WILL TAKE GOOD HOUSE TRAILER IN AS DOWN PAYMENT.

WATERFORD PARK ROAD. This gracious old home that has been extremely well cared for, has 6 rooms and bath, with 10 acres of beautiful laying ground, 3 acres of which is in lawn and shrubbery. The rhododendron will be blooming soon. Lots of pine trees, roses and many others. Walls plastered and painted, some custom made drapes, considerable floor covering, kitchen and bath above average, water system consists of well, spring and cistern, electric hot water heater, and gas furnace. Oh yes, a riding lawn mower goes with the above, and maybe my wife Eva, will mow your grass for you this summer. PRICE $25,000.

REAR 236 INDIANA AVENUE, CHESTER — I just cannot understand why someone that is renting has not bought this real clean 5 room home and bath. Now just listen to what it has. A large kitchen with lots of cupboards, a cozy living room, a T.V. room that could be used for a bedroom if needed, two nice newly redecorated bedrooms, and bath on second floor, gas furnace, attached garage. T.V. room paneled. Now here is the finale, priced at $7,500 with a LOW, LOW DOWN PAYMENT.

Junior Editors Quiz on
MIRRORS

QUESTION: How can mirrors reflect things so brightly?

ANSWER: Everything we look at, except for perfectly black areas, reflects some of the light which falls upon it. Objects which have a soft porous surface, like cloth, absorb much of the light. Hard-surfaced shiny objects reflect a lot of light to our eyes. If such objects are shiny enough, they will reflect a full picture of the scene whose light falls on them. If we are looking directly into them, this picture will include our own faces. In (1), Jane looks into a smooth white kitchen plate. The light from the window falls on her face and she can see a dim image of herself in the plate. Ancient peoples early discovered the fun of looking at themselves in shiny surfaces. In (2), an Egyptian princess uses a polished bronze hand mirror. But the mirrors our millions of modern princesses use are much better. (3). Back of the glass, which acts as a protective layer, is a brilliant coating called silvering, often made of tin and mercury. This gives a surface so highly reflective that we see almost perfect images of ourselves.

(Kin Spalthoff of Riverside, Conn., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Roosevelt created the Office of Price Administration.

Ten years ago — A World War II bomb taken from a sunken ship exploded in the Philippines, killing 88 persons, mostly children.

Five years ago — The body of Gen. Douglas MacArthur was interred in the MacArthur Memorial in Norfolk, Va.

One year ago — President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a civil rights bill which stressed open housing.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, April 11, the 101st day of 1969. There are 264 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1951, President Harry S. Truman relieved Gen. Douglas MacArthur of his command in the Far East.

On this date:

In 1689, William and Mary were crowned king and queen of England.

Administration Places Surplus At $6 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration reportedly now expects a surplus approaching $6 billion in a fiscal 1970 budget showing the biggest cutbacks in welfare and defense.

The projected surplus is the result of what one administration source called "a second trip through the wringer" for the record $195.3 billion budget President Nixon inherited from Lyndon Johnson.

Nixon ordered an agency-by-agency review of the Johnson budget, which had forecast a $3.5 billion surplus, as soon as he took office last January. But when it was completed it showed a net increase in outlays—instead of a decrease—so Nixon sent it back for another look.

Announcement of the $5.5 billion to $6 billion surplus today is expected to be followed up with a bundle of revised agency—by an agency requests next week when Congress reconvenes after its Easter recess.

The bulk of the more than $2 billion in spending cuts came out of the budgets for Defense and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird already has disclosed a $1.1-billion cutback. The Pentagon is seeking $900 million less than was in the Johnson budget for the antiballistic missile system.

A cutback of $1.1 billion reportedly is in store for HEW. This would be about 2 per cent of the department's overall budget, but actually would amount to a much larger proportionate share.

About $18 billion of the HEW budget is for uncontrollable expenses such as Social Security, Medicare and public assistance which are safe from budget cutters.

Besides defense and welfare, fairly severe cuts have been rumored for space, agriculture and highways.

An increase in the 1970 surplus would be balanced off, in part, by a shrinkage in the surplus for fiscal 1969 which ends June 30.

The Johnson budget estimated a $2.4 billion surplus which Nixon people now put at closer to $1 billion.

'Most Openly Covered War,' Gallagher Says Of Viet Fight

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The general manager of The Associated Press said here Friday night the Vietnam conflict "is the most openly covered war in history."

Wes Gallagher spoke informally during a dinner-meeting on the first day of Journalism Week activities on the Ohio University campus.

Gallagher, a foreign correspondent during World War II, said the Vietnam War also is the most dangerous for newsmen. He said two Associated Press correspondents have been killed in action and 12 others wounded.

During the meeting, new officers of the Southeastern Ohio Newspaper Association were announced. They were elected at an afternoon caucus.

George Stowell, managing editor of the Portsmouth Times was elected president and A. T. Tumbull, Ohio University journalism professor, secretary.

Vice presidents are Charles Reamer, managing editor of The Athens Messenger and Robert Dix, publisher of The Martins Ferry Times-Leader.

Friday night's meeting was a joint session of the newspaper association and region four of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism society.

MONEY

The first United States mint was established in 1792.

Half dimes, called dismes, were the first coins minted, followed by one cent and half cent coins. Before the mint, the "Fugio" cent was the first coin issued by the U.S.A. in 1787. It was also called the Franklin cent because the inscribed phrase "Mind Your Business" was attributed to Benjamin Franklin.
